DOWNFALL OF CAPITAL PREDICTED

President Simon Believed to Have Fled from Port Au Prince

AMERICAN GUNBOATS

Are Standing by Ready to Aid Foreigners—American Mill Burned.

Port Au Prince, Haiti, July 29.—The revolutionists encompass the capital. President Simon appears to recognize the inevitable, but if he has left the palace the fact is not known. It is believed he planned to embark at the last moment, but it is thought that if he remained in the city he could help assure public order following the occupation by the enemy.

General Leconte is at the head of the invading forces. He occupied Gonaives Wednesday and his advance guard reached Archaise yesterday and before sunset had come within three miles of this city.

Leconte's candidacy for the Presidency progressed with his march on the capital and there was a consequent loss of ground by General Firmin, commander of the rival wing of the revolution and also an aspirant for the office of national executive in succession to Simon, whose forced retirement is at hand.

General Firmin's arrival here is awaited impatiently by his partisans and with some anxiety by the public lest the overthrow of the present government result in a clash between the supporters of Leconte and Firmin.

In the crisis Simon has had the forethought to lease his private residence, situated in the suburb, to a man named Archer, who is an American captain, to insure its protection in case of pillage.

The city has a deserted air. Most of the stores are closed and the citizens are keeping indoors. No one ventures out except of necessity. The sellers of produce have ceased coming into town and the food supplies are fast being exhausted. Vegetables and meat have advanced rapidly in price and there is little of either to be had at any figure.

A lumber mill on the banks of a lake at Assene has been burned by the revolutionists and with it 200,000 railroad ties which had been cut for the new railway, which is being constructed by an American company.

It is rumored that Au Caves, President Simon's home town, has fallen into the hands of the revolutionists. If this is true it is a severe blow to the administration.

Advices from Port De Paix on the northern coast indicate uneasiness at that point and the American cruiser Chester has gone there from Cape Haitien.

DOCTOR DIES OF HEART FAILURE CAUSED BY GAME

Philadelphia, July 29.—Stricken at Shibe Ball Park with heart disease, superinduced by the excitement incident to the sensational double victory which the world's champions secured over Detroit today, Dr. William B. Evans, a young physician and secretary of the Burt P. Evans Construction company, with the Woman's Homeopathic Hospital, died last night, shortly after being admitted to Dr. Evans was an enthusiastic baseball fan. During the second contest, in which Combs and Donovan locked horns, Dr. Evans became intensely interested and excited over the see-sawing progress of the game. Suddenly, without warning, he fell unconscious.

GATES' CONDITION IS VERY SERIOUS

Paris, July 29.—John W. Gates was reported worse today. Pneumonia has developed in one of his lungs and his doctors admit his condition to be again serious. Charles Gates, son of the noted speculator, said today that he feared his father could hardly recover from this last attack.

SAVED FROM THE STRANDED BOAT

Cincinnati, July 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Anderson of Cincinnati were among the passengers saved from the Empress of China, which was stranded off Nishima Saka light Thursday while attempting to round the southern point of the Awa Peninsula.

Mr. Anderson has mining interests in Korea, and was preparing to meet his associate, John G. Deshler of Cincinnati, at Tokio.

REVISION PLANNED BY HOUSE

Democrats and Progressive Republicans Will Push Wool Bill

REGULARS STAND FIRM

Prediction Made by Democrats
That Free List Bill Will Pass Senate Tuesday.

Washington, D. C., July 29.—The fight of the Democratic Progressive Republican coalition for broader tariff revision gained ground yesterday and it was confidently predicted in both houses that a conference-created compromise wool bill, the former free list bill and possibly the cotton bill, with steel, sugar and other schedules, would be passed.

Meantime the indications are stronger than ever that President Taft will exercise his veto power on tariff legislation prior to the submission of the tariff board report in December. The cotton bill probably will pass the house next Thursday.

Democratic leaders asserted that if the present program is carried out there is nothing to prevent adjournment about the middle of August. The plan contemplates a compromise wool bill on a 30 per cent ad valorem raw wool duty basis. This measure will go to conference either next Monday or Tuesday.

The free list bill, instead of being handicapped with sugar, steel and other schedules as riders, is to be changed only by the Bailey amendment, which strikes out the provision placing farm products on the free list. This amendment is necessary to insure the Republican insurgent vote.

Democrats of both houses expressed certainty that the free list bill would be put through the senate on Thursday by the same combination that put the wool bill through.

The intention of the free list bill, as a whole, as the insurgent senators regard it is to compensate the farmer for the loss supposed to have been inflicted upon him by the acceptance of Canadian reciprocity and they will not consent to extension to other countries of the free import provision on the products of the farm. Practically all of the opposition to the bill on the Democratic side will be on account of this amendment. Among those who prefer the bill unamended is Senator Johnson of Maine.

"We are not going to try to put any of the big schedules on the free list bill, as was at first contemplated," said one of the insurgent senators. "We want the president to have an opportunity to say whether he is willing to do anything to recoup the farmers of the country for the loss caused them by forcing the passage of the reciprocity bill, and we shall not give him the excuse for a veto that he might find in a cotton or a steel schedule."

The wool bill will be sent to conference next Monday or Tuesday. It will be called up in the house then by Democratic Leader Underwood, disagreed to, and both houses will appoint conferees. The house conferees will be Representatives Underwood of Alabama, Randall of Texas, Democrats and Payne of New York, Republican. The senate conferees are not as certain.

was given before the senate investigating committee today by Lawrence B. Stringer, Democratic caucus nominee for senator in 1909. Answering questions propounded by Judge Hennessy, Lorimer's counsel, Stringer said that it was apparent in the Illinois senatorial deadlock that no Republican could be elected without Democratic votes and that Lorimer had more friends among the Democrats than any other Republican.

Stringer also stated that it was understood that if Lorimer should be a candidate a number of Democrats would support him. He also declared that Lorimer was extremely popular among people in a majority of Illinois counties because of his attitude in support of the deep waterways proposition.

DETECTIVES FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

Erie, Pa., July 29.—Gilbert B. Perkins, head of the Perkins detective agency, and Charles H. Franklin, manager of his Philadelphia branch, were today found guilty of misusing the U. S. mails. Judge Orr immediately sentenced Perkins to five years and Perkins to three years in the federal prison at Leavenworth. Perkins broke down when he heard the verdict of the jury and weepingly appealed for mercy. Lawyers for the men will appeal the case. They claim that the entire case against their clients had been framed up by the Burns detective agency, working through Postoffice Inspector Waltz.

MT. VERNON BANK CLOSES DOORS

Mt. Vernon, July 29.—The Guarantee Savings and Trust Co. bank closed its doors here this morning by order of F. E. Baxter, Ohio state superintendent of banks. This is the sixth bank in the state founded by A. J. Solomon of Columbus that has closed its doors. It is announced that the depositors of the bank will not lose a cent. The deposits on June 7 showed a total of $217,000. The bank was a depository for township and city funds.

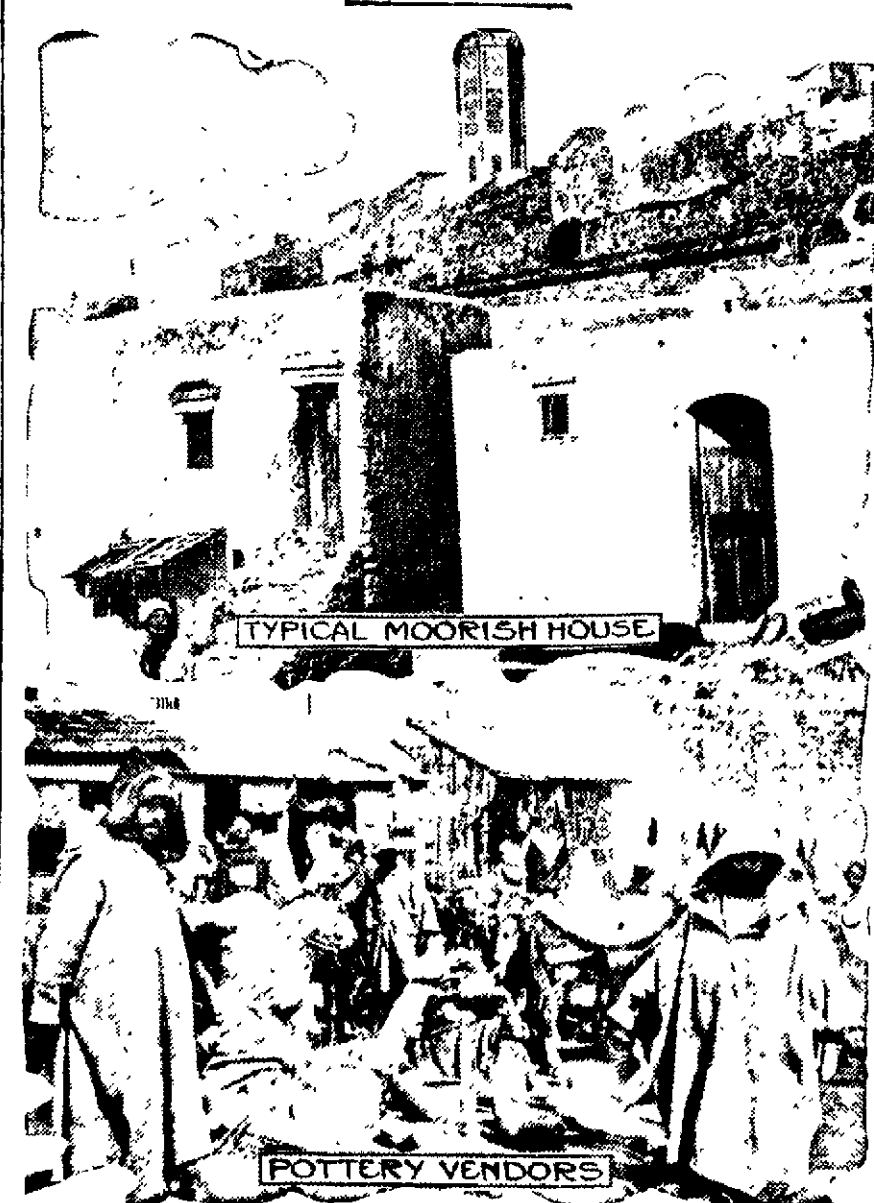

The closing of this bank adds fresh impetus to the already vigorous movement for placing banks under state supervision. Solomon in a recent interview in Columbus claimed he has lost money in all the banks started by him which have closed.

SEIZED WITH CRAMPS; DROWNS

Zanesville, O., July 29.—Edward Newman, aged 30, was drowned in Moxahala creek last evening in full view of hundreds of park visitors. He was seized with cramps while bathing.

SCENES IN IMPORTANT MOORISH

CITY OF TANGIER; THREE NATIONS VERGE ON WAR IN DISPUTE.

Paris, July 29.—The critical deadlock between France, England and Germany over Morocco continues, but France hopes that a way will be found for a peaceful solution. To this end she is prepared to go to the limit of conciliation, but cannot agree either to evacuate Morocco or hand over huge blocks of African territory merely in return for Germany's reiterated assurance that France will not be bothered in the Burdett, N. Y., July 29.—Forty persons were injured and the lives of 250 others, many from Cincinnati and Ohio valley points were endangered when an Atlantic City excursion train from points in Ohio, running 40 miles a hour struck a broken rail here.

Two of the cars, both Pullman sleepers, toppled over an embankment and plowed their way through the dirt. Another Pullman and a day coach, jumped the rails, but remained upright.

The locomotive passed over the break in safety and did not leave the track.

Most of the passengers were asleep when the accident occurred and had to fight their way through the cars in the dark.

Everyone on board the train was badly shaken up, and that the injuries were not more numerous is regarded as remarkable.

Most of the hurts consisted of cuts and bruises from flying glass. A few

TOBACCO TRUST REORGANIZATION

New York, July 29.—The terms of the dissolution of the Tobacco trust and the plan of reorganization will be given to the stockholders of the company Monday if present plans are carried out. The exact terms of the reorganization will not be announced to the public until later.

ANOTHER APPEAL TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS

The column article in the Ohio State Journal of Saturday morning on the Newark political situation may serve to convince our people of all shades of belief that the Advocate's warning of the 22nd of March last, as to the candidacy of Herbert Atherton for Mayor, was timely.

All our citizens should awaken to the fact that all the unfortunate notoriety that Newark got a year ago over the lynching tragedy will be again paraded throughout the country in consequence of the candidacy of Atherton.

The magazines will again be printing sensational articles and the picture of the "Man responsible for the lynching at Newark, Ohio."

What has been said in newspapers recently is only the beginning of the odious notoriety that will be again forced upon our city, in which it will be claimed that the sanction of the tragedy after a year's deliberation will be a worse blot on Newark than the original crime.

This subject was thoroughly discussed in a confidential talk between Atherton and the editor of the Advocate at least two months before the publication of this paper's warning article. But all the personal advice of the occasion was without avail. Atherton had returned from California for the purpose of intruding his candidacy for Mayor and no persuasion could influence him.

It will now be demonstrated to every thinking citizen that Atherton cares not how much our city will suffer in its reputation throughout the country by his candidacy.

Again the Advocate appeals to the Democratic voters to take the first step at the primaries to stop the threatened menace to our city by nominating a candidate for Mayor who will not be a discredit in the eyes of all the outside world.

There are several worthy, competent, clean men spoken of as candidates before the Democratic primaries for Mayor, the nomination of any one of whom would be creditable to the party and the city.

The Advocate will express no preference for any one of these worthy Democrats. But the paper will give its most earnest and forceful support to the man of this creditable list, who may be nominated.

Again the paper reiterates the position on which it has planted itself, that if by the division of Democratic electors Herbert Atherton shall secure a plurality vote, then we shall appeal to all the voters of the city to defeat him at the election by an overwhelming majority. And the contest will not end until the last ballot is cast at the election on November 7.

PHILADELPHIA GIRL HAS RETURNED HOME

New York, July 29.—Filled with remorse because her absence had nearly killed her mother, Louise Swan, who disappeared from her home a fortnight ago, returned today. Her disappearance caused the police considerable work and for some time it was thought that they had a second Dorothy Arnold case on their hands. After a hysterical interview with her mother the girl was taken to the home of friends in Brooklyn. She says that when she left her home she went direct to Philadelphia and secured a position and was unaware of the great commotion her disappearance had caused.

BOAT FOUNDERED; 11 LIVES LOST

Halifax, N. S., July 29.—Eleven lives were lost when the coal laden steamer John Irwin, bound from Port Melton for this port, foundered on Tuesday morning during a storm off Beaver Harbor, 115 miles east of Halifax. So far as known there is only one survivor, Wm. McLeod of Halifax, who was washed ashore on one of the steamer's hatches at Marie Joseph Wednesday afternoon. He was first mate.

ELKS WILL RIDE MULES IN RACE

Lexington, Ky., July 29.—As a feature of the speed program for the Blue Grass Fair, Jimmy Ross, who is in charge of the racing department is arranging a mule race, the riders to be members of the order of Elks. The race is to be one mile, open to mules of all ages and riders to be members of the order of Elks from anywhere, and is to be run Aug. 12.

DODGED OFFICERS FOR THREE YEARS

San Francisco, July 29.—That he dodged the officers of the law for three years and surrendered only when he was starving was the statement made to the police today by a prisoner in the county jail who says he is Cary A. Manker, former president of a bank at Pearl, Ill. Manker says he has been wanted for several years on a charge of embezzling $40,000 of the bank's fund. He said he gambled away $30,000 and then took $10,000 more and fled before his shortage was discovered.

ARRANGES FUNERAL; DIES.

Bellefontaine, July 29.—After naming the minister he desired to have preach his funeral oration, the undertaker to care for his body and selecting his casket, George Shaub, 22, died here of appendicitis. Shaub also selected his funeral wreath.

STREET WEDDING DID NOT PROVE TO BE HAPPY ONE

Canal Dover, July 29.—A wedding which took place on a platform at a street fair at Newcomerstown in 1902, before a crowd of several thousand people, did not prove to be a happy one, for the bride, Hattie Huston, is now suing her husband, Walter Brown, for a divorce. Brown is a guard at the Ohio State Penitentiary. He is charged with gross neglect and cruelty.

During the street fair business men of Newcomerstown offered to furnish a home for any couple who would consent to be married on a platform. Walter Brown and Hattie Huston agreed and were married by Mayor Fryer.

PRESIDENT BROKE WORD WITH MANN

House Leader Angry and is Out for Reprisals

EXCUSES WERE FORMED

Every Time Congressman Asked To Talk Over Appointment of Attorney.

Washington, July 29.—An open break between President Taft and Representative James R. Mann of Illinois, the Republican leader of the house, threatens complications for the administration in working out the legislative problems not only of the special session now on, but of the regular session next winter. It was precipitated by the president's appointment of James H. Wilkerson as United States district attorney at Chicago.

Mann was so incensed yesterday afternoon that he would not trust himself to make a statement, but it is known that he charges the president with an absolute breach of faith in sending in the appointment at this time.

Mann was not opposed to Wilkerson, but he stated that Wilkerson should not be named to succeed Edwin M. Sims until formal charges had been preferred against the latter, or it had been shown that he should not have another term. He insists that no appointment would be made until he, Mann, had been accorded a hearing, but that every time he attempted to talk the matter with the president some excuse was advanced for deferring the discussion. Mann also declares that the president told Senator Cullom no later than yesterday forenoon, that the appointment would not be made for some weeks yet, and then sent in the nomination within two or three hours.

Mann is out for reprisals and openly threatens to do everything in his power to embarrass the president from this time on. Inasmuch as he is the Republican leader in the house a breach between him and the president is fraught with serious consequences, especially because of the situation created by the senate's passage of a wool bill which presents the embarrassing prospect to the president of having to veto the first measure aimed at the injustices of the Payne-Aldrich tariff.

MOROCCAN TROUBLE WILL BE SETTLED

Berlin, Germany, July 29.—It is stated positively here today that Kaiser Wilhelm has not at any time suggested the calling of another international conference to settle the Moroccan dispute. It was also made plain at the foreign office that the difficulties between France and Germany are vital to those nations and will be settled without interference from outside powers.

PLEADED GUILTY TO ASSAULT CHARGE

Akron, July 29.—John Kelly of Youngstown, arrested yesterday in Cleveland on a charge of assaulting Andre Martin, daughter of Mrs. I. T. Martin Barnhart of Parkersburg, W. Va., waived arraignment at a preliminary hearing and entered a plea of guilty. He will be taken before the regular grand jury in September. To the authorities at the county jail Kelly acknowledged his guilt. He appears willing to accept the penalty of the law, which is life imprisonment in the penitentiary. Kelly has a criminal record at Dayton and Cleveland.

BRIDGES TO SEE

Chicago, July 29.—Declarations in two suits for $100,000 each against Evelyn Arthur See, leader of the Absolute Life Cult, recently convicted of abducting Mildred Bridges, were filed today by her father, Stephen A. Bridges. He charges the abduction of his 17-year-old daughter and the alienation of the affections of his wife, Mrs. Lucille Bridges.

GRAVE ANXIETY FOR THE POPE

Rome, July 29.—The condition of Pope Pius X. continues to cause the church officials grave anxiety. So serious is his condition now considered that he is always attended by a physician.

WORK ON GRANDSTAND PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

When the Newark team returns next Tuesday for a four game series with Wheeling, the players who fought out a double header at Wehrle Park Tuesday of this week will see a fine new grandstand on the spot where ruins and ashes rested before.

The scorers who recorded the game, while seated on upturned nail kegs with their backs resting on a rough board which reached from one carpenter's "horse" to another, will be ensconced in a new press box more convenient than that in the old grandstand.

Spectators who paid their 25 cents for grandstand seats and then sat crowded in the old structure will find a grandstand more roomy and comfortable than ever. They will find fifty more seats in the space directly behind the batter, in a space which was taken up before by a big entrance.

Players on the home team, who were compelled to dress in a crowded club room, will find a large comfortable club house under the grand stand equipped with plenty of seats and hooks.

Newark people may be surprised that such progress has been made in replacing the grand stand which was destroyed by fire less than a week ago. Saturday afternoon found the frame work of the new structure nearly all in place, the sleepers for the seats all in position and the brackets ready for the seat boards.

By Monday the seats will be in position and the work will be started on the roof. It is the expectation of Contractor Houpt to have the roof ready for the waterproofing by Tuesday morning. It is hardly possible that roofing paper will be applied before the game Tuesday, but the roof of the stand will keep out the sun and unless it rains, that will be all that is necessary.

SEVEN HOUR SESSION OF THE LEAGUE MAGNATES

PRESIDENT CARSON AND DIRECTORS DISCUSS VEXING PROBLEMS.

Evansville Players Get Back Salaries. Wheeling Will Finish the Season.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—Representatives of the eight clubs of the Central League met here yesterday with President Carson. The session lasted seven hours. No official statement was made regarding the action taken. To allay the stories that have been circulated throughout the Central League, it was stated that South Bend will not get a berth in the Central League this year. From the rumblings that emanated from the room in which directors were arguing their cases it seemed as if the league was in genuine danger of disruption. When it was all over they came forth smiling and announced that all was quiet. Each and every club representative denied the existence of petty squabbles with home fans and stated that all would be smooth sailing from now until the season winds up.

Wheeling had, it is said, made peace with the fans and the town was again ready to support the team. Evansville is happy over a string of recent victories and the fans are no longer ashamed to attend the games. Dayton, Grand Rapids, Zanesville, Terre Haute, Ft. Wayne and Newark are all set for the finish. Arrangements were made to pay on Monday the $6000 back salary due the members of the Evansville team. It was stated that all of the teams will complete their schedules.

MARION MAY LOSE TEAM

Marion, O., July 28.—Unless public spirited men of Marion come to the rescue, the Marion Baseball company will go under today, the franchise will be taken over by the league, salaries paid and the team moved to some other city. The local baseball officials refuse to continue, unless sufficient money is provided at once. The attendance is $800 behind last year, which also was poor. Secretary Joe Carr came here today to investigate and make a decision.

Tail End Sale of Spring and Summer Millinery, one-third off, Stephan's. 2536

It's all right to look ahead, but do not be too previous.

Saturday and Mr. Houpt was crying for more men. Twelve more can be given work without danger of them getting in the way of one another. A quartet of carpenters promised for the work at Wehrle park failed to put in an appearance Saturday morning thus disappointing the contractor in charge of the work.

Some trouble has been experienced in getting lumber delivered fast enough for the carpenters to work but at that they have made good progress with the work.

Numerous changes have been made with a view of better accommodating the spectators who use the grand stand. The ground floor entrance in the center of the stand has been done away with and in all probability an entrance with an ill probability an elevated platform, probably six feet above the ground, which will permit an entrance at about the middle of the tier of seats will make it possible for the spectators to go either up or down to their seats.

Besides this, exits will be provided at the bottom so the crowds can get out more quickly.

The old grand stand had eight or nine rows of seats and the new one will have twelve or thirteen. It is believed that each row will seat 160 people from end to end, thus giving the stand a seating capacity of at least 1200 people.

It will be divided in the middle with a railing so the smokers and tobacco users will be separated from the section reserved for ladies. It is the intention of the directors to rigidly enforce this ruling and such hostile actions as were resented two Sundays ago will not be tolerated.

Provisions are being made for the refreshment stand as before and when the new stand is completed it will be one of the most convenient and roomy in any town of Newark's size in the country.

TALK OF NEW CIRCUIT FOR NEXT SEASON

DAYTON SCRIBE DOPES OUT A NEW LEAGUE AND HANDS NEWARK A BOQUET.

Youngstown and Canton Proposed to Take the Place of Terre Haute and Evansville.

The following article by the sport editor of the Dayton Herald, will be of interest to baseball fans of Newark:

The meeting of the Central League magnates at Columbus Monday to discuss and make plans to circumvent the financial difficulties of the Evansville and Zanesville teams certainly points out to them the need of a reorganization in the league. Both towns have been given good ball clubs, but failed to support them this season. It isn't only the local owners who suffer in cases of that kind. The visiting teams also lose a large sum on the season. The league needs reorganizing, and while the magnates are about it, it would be a good proposition to take in the best towns possible within the territory. Short mileage is an item to be considered. The chances of the new cities supporting their teams is another one. There are several circuits possible out of the cities so situated as to be geographically in line for the Central.

Of the cities now in the league, five: Dayton, Grand Rapids, Fort Wayne, Terre Haute and Newark, should stick. The first four are good class B towns. Newark has turned out better week day crowds than any city in the league since she was admitted recently.

Taking those five cities as a basis for a new league a good circuit could be formed by admitting Saginaw, Mich., Youngstown and Canton, Ohio. That the last named cities would be good ones for the Central is the opinion of a prominent business man of Canton, now in Dayton. This man keeps a close watch on baseball. He says Youngstown is a much better town than Zanesville ever will be. Youngstown is turning out from 600 to 800 on week days, 1,500 to 1,800 on Saturdays and upwards of 3,000 on Sunday, when the weather is favorable. In the O. P. league. This man would leave Wheeling in the new league and drop Newark or Terre Haute, although he is mighty strong for Newark.

Another good bet would be to drop Terre Haute and form a league with Springfield, Ohio in it. This town has come into its own as a baseball spot since Owner Watkins secured a down town park for the Ohio State league team this season.

The combinations which can be formed, all which look better than the present one, are numerous. By going west instead of east there are several good towns which would be dead weight to break into the Central. Danville, Ill., and Gary, Ind., are two, according to baseball men. Michigan also has a couple of good towns. It might pay the league to locate a team in one of them at the same time break up the jump into Michigan.

According to the best advice the trouble at Wheeling lies in the fact that the fans do not like the present owners, and refuse to support a team controlled by Erwin and Perkins. These men refuse to sell except at their own figures, which have been too high for any prospective buyers who have appeared on the horizon in late years. They cannot be blamed, however, for trying to realize all they can out of the club when they let it go.

President Carson, being a South Bend man, naturally wants to see his city back in the league. But the South Bend dentist is president of the league and should know there are better towns in the territory controlled by the league than his home city. In order to keep from losing money Owner Bert Annis transferred the South Bend champions to Grand Rapids and when a city refuses to support a championship club it classes with Zanesville and Evansville.

WHEELING LIKES NEWARK.
Bernie Wingenter has returned from Wheeling after a visit of several days. He states that Wheeling fans are for Newark and that they like the way this city has made good in the Central League. The grit shown by Newark baseball folks in coming back after the two calamities of last Sunday and Monday morning makes a hit in the Central League towns.

AN APPEAL TO TICKET HOLDERS BY BALL CLUB

President Robert Read of the Ohio State League, wishes the Newark Central League club to have the $200 in the hands of the Board of Trade for ticket books purchased for the old club, with which to rebuild the grandstand, or to help in any way that may be deemed best. It is urged on behalf of the Newark Central League baseball club that persons holding tickets for admission to the Ohio State League games, and for which they paid $5, waive their right to the ticket, and that the money—which is now in the hands of the Board of Trade—be turned over to the Central League club in Newark, and used to assist in rebuilding the grandstand destroyed by fire Monday morning. Secretary Wells has stated that this means can be used for ten days, and if no claims are filed that he will consider that the plan is favorable to the ones holding tickets, and will turn the money over to the Newark Central League club. Again the request is urgently made that all holders of tickets waive their rights.

REDS TRYING OUT TALENT TO BOLSTER TEAM

(By C. H. Zuber.)

Cincinnati, July 29.—The Reds' present series of games at home with the Eastern teams are taking on the aspect of the early spring contests, when new talent is rampant and the fans go out in droves in order to size up the new men and decide for themselves to what extent they will fit into the local scenery. The acquisition of a number of new players during the past few weeks has brought about a sort of spring-time atmosphere, especially as President Herrmann has requested Manager Griffith to try these men out now, instead of waiting until the last few days of the season, by which time all of them would be more or less stale. President Herrmann goes on the theory that we know what the old men on the team are capable of and what they have been doing so far this season; now it's up to Griffith to find out what the recruits are made of, and so, from now until the team leaves again for its third and last Eastern invasion, all the new men that are added to the roster of the team will be trotted out for demonstration and inspection. And the results are certain to be beneficial in the matter of deciding who shall and who shall not stick with the team for next season.

The indications are good that Marsans and Almeida, the two Cubans on whom the club has an option, will stick with the team. In the games played so far Marsans, the outfielder, has shown superior class. He fields beautifully, throws hard and far, is lightning fast on the bases and can hit some. Almeida also is speedy and has a strong arm, but seems to suffer a slight handicap in being somewhat slow in getting throws away. However, that is a fault that can easily be corrected, and there is no doubt that he will overcome it before long. In all other respects he looks the part of a real ball player, and it is pretty safe to assert that he and Marsans will be seen regularly in the lineup during the next few weeks, and especially in next Sunday's game with Brooklyn and on the following Sunday with Philadelphia.

Two other new men who will be tried while the Reds are at home are Grieve and Balenti, shortstops. Present Ed Grant is covering short field for the team, as that appears to be the weakest place on the infield. If he makes good during these trials, the new manager of the Reds will have but little trouble with his lineup, as good third basemen are plentiful, the Reds now having Esmond and Almeida as extra men on that job, with Arthur Phelan, who was with the team for a short while last fall, and who burned up things in the Southern League this year, coming along later on. It is expected that Balenti, who showed some speed in the last game at Brooklyn, will be used in next Sunday's game against the Dodgers, no matter how good the work of Grant may be during the rest of the week. Other youngsters that are added from time to time will be displayed as fast as they report, so that the fans will have something to interest them, even though the team doesn't reach the first division.

"Lil Althuh" Johnson appears to have had two ice cream festivals prepared for him during his stay in England, for the two matches arranged for the dusky champion can hardly be classified as fights when one gets the dope on the men whom he is to meet in the ring for rich with Paddy Curran, who is heralded stakes. His first mix-up will be as the Irish champion, while his other contest will be with Bombardier Wells, the English champion. Now, here's some dope on these two men that will give some idea of what to expect. Curran appears to be up against Johnson, a second-rate fighter from Oshkosh, Wis.; Curran knocked out Gunner Moir, and Gunner Moir put Bombardier Wells away in three rounds. Now what show have these men with Johnson, fat and all?

Ohio Valley motor boat enthusiasts will be given the opportunity to indulge in their favorite sport here early in September, when the Fern Bank Dam Association will arrange a big pleasure boat parade on the river, to be followed the next day by a series of aquatic contests of all kinds, from motor boat races down to swimming affairs, and including several rowing races. The occasion for this celebration, which will extend over a period of one week, is the completion of the Fern Bank dam by the United States government, this work giving Cincinnati a continuous stage of nine feet of water for a distance of 26 miles. Substantial prizes will be offered for the various events and it is expected that boats from all portions of the Ohio Valley will compete. The dates of the celebration are Sept. 4 to 9.

The Huguenot seems to be the harness horse who is attracting the most attention of the followers of this style of racing these days. This gelding comes out of the famous Chimes-Notti King family, which also developed The Abbott, as well as The Abbe, the unbeaten pacer of 1910. The Huguenot is under the skillful tutelage of the veteran, Ed Geers, and promises to make a decided name for himself before the end of the season, provided his bad manners do not interfere. It is reported that The Huguenot is what is generally termed a "bad actor," and if this propensity creeps into his races his speed and staying powers will be sadly handicapped. AGAIN A "SAILOR" SUMMER.

Last year the trig and beaming manish sailor was temporarily eclipsed by the sloping brimmed mushroom sailor of rough straw, but this year the attractive manish shape is back in first favor and, these hats are made not only of the rough straws, but of the finer milan, which is, of course, rather expensive. Sailors are charming on young girls, but any woman under forty—and even under fifty—may wear the sailor shape if she is dressed in the perfection of tailored style, with hair carefully groomed and smooth beneath the sailor brim. Only very young women should attempt the coquetry of curls beneath a sailor.

Ox-Tail Soup—Have the butcher cut two ox-tails into two-inch pieces wash, drain and dry them, dust with flour and fry brown in one tablespoonful of butter. Cover them with two quarts of water, and simmer slowly for two and a half hours. In the interval prepare one cupful of each of carrot, turnip, onion and celery, cutting the carrot, turnip and onion in tiny dice and the celery in half inch pieces; parboil them for twenty minutes in salted water. Add the prepared vegetables to the soup, simmer for three quarters of an hour longer, or until the vegetables are very tender; add one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half of a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne, and one teaspoonful of lemon juice. Take from the fire, add three tablespoonfuls of Madeira (if desired) and serve.

Fig Whip—Pick over and clean a half pound of figs, cook until tender in just enough water to cover and then simmer down until the water is evaporated; chop the figs fine, reserving five to cut into strips to garnish the dish when serving. Beat two egg-whites with two tablespoonfuls of sugar until very stiff, then add a teaspoonful of lemon juice and whip again; sprinkle a buttered mold with some of the whip and add more of the chopped figs, turn in some of the whip and figs until mold is filled; set the dish into a pan of warm water and place in a moderate oven to cook until firm and puff. Invert onto a dish and surround with whipped cream and figs or serve a custard sauce flavored with lemon juice and the grated rind.

STRIKING CHICAGO PEDDLERS ARE BACK AGAIN ON THE JOB

Chicago, July 20.—The strike of the Chicago peddlers, one of the most unique on record, ended today, the men having voted last night to return to their work and end their warfare against the community at large.

They came to the decision after five days' of idleness that they must seek another and more peaceful way of bringing on the repeal of the anti-noise ordinance which prevented them from crying their wares. Today strangely silent, but just as eager as ever to drive a bargain, the 4,000 peddlers with wagons filled with vegetables and fruits are carving their wares to the thousands of Chicago households which depend upon the itinerant dealers for their fresh groceries. Those who served through the brief guerrilla campaign on the strikers' levee, "wrecking crew" returned to the more peaceful occupations from which they were drafted. The handful of leaders whose word was law with the 4,000 roving merchants during the strike forgot their taste of power in dickerings at the city's back doors. For five days the peddlers refused to serve the city with fresh vegetables because the police had been ordered to enforce the anti-noise law. Small grocers immediately raised prices and housewives complained bitterly. The peddlers saw their trade leaving them and decided to go back to hawking their wares—silent hawking that is—until pressure can be brought to bear on council at its next meeting, six weeks hence.

None are so blind as those who have no object in view.

ENTERTAIN ON ISLAND WITH A HOUSE PARTY

Young Ladies Have Splendid Time at Buckeye Lake—News of Granville and Vicinity.

Granville, July 20.—During the past week Miss Faye Hulshizer has been entertaining a number of her friends with a house party at the Hulshizer cottage on Ohio Island, Buckeye Lake. This is one of the most beautiful little islands in the whole lake and offers many attractions. The guests have been Miss Shirley Slack and the Misses Bettie and Rachel Jones and Miss Nellie Starrett. All have been enjoying themselves to the utmost.

Miss Frank Atwell and son, Lunn, spent one day this week at Summerland Beach and are loud in their praises of the big assembly that is being held there.

After a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Croton, Miss Doris Case has returned home. She was accompanied by her cousins, Robert and Amanda Williams, who will visit the families of E. J. Case and Charles Tanning.

CURES BARBERS' ITCH PROMPTLY

When All Else Fails Goodhair Soap Cures Barbers' Itch.

"Will you kindly send me a cake of your celebrated 'Goodhair' soap, for which I am enclosing 25 cents in stamps. I have been sending to Dayton for the soap, as I have been unable to locate your products in any store in this city, and cannot do without it at any cost. I spent about $20.00 several years ago to remedy barber's itch. Finally, as a last resort, I was persuaded to use your soap, which brought immediate results. At the small price of a loaf, I have recommended 'Goodhair' for shampoo and other skin disease, but they also seemed to be unable to secure it here. Just gave me the first application of Goodhair Soap, and has not used anything else since commencing on the soap."

Answering your inquiry of 20th Instant, beg leave to state that I saw the young man afflicted with barber's itch, and he has used all I could supply, got relief from the first application of Goodhair Soap, and has not used anything else since commencing on the soap.

Yours truly,
WM. M. MELVILLE,
Lima, Ohio.
If your druggist will not supply you with Goodhair Soap, send 25c to Goodhair Co., Newark, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Griffing have been spending the summer at their cottage at Buckeye Lake.

Miss Carrie Smedley of Hillsboro, O., after a pleasant visit with friends here, returned home Saturday.

On Sunday the Rev. Dwight W. Wylie, D. D., will fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church both morning and evening. For a number of years Dr. Wylie has supplied this pulpit during vacation seasons, to the profit and delight of the church, and his being with the congregation again will be a treat.

One of the largest family reunions that is an annual occurrence in this vicinity is that of the Hankinson family. This family and connections are very numerous and always come together in large numbers, but it is expected that the attendance this year on Thursday, August 10 in the Thomas grove, near the home of J. W. Hankinson, one mile west of Dry Creek.

Mrs. Sarah A. Gormley, of East Broad street, Columbus, is spending a few days in the village, stopping at the Euston, and visiting her sister, Mrs. E. P. Walton, who is spending the summer at "Hillcrest," the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, on East Broadway.

Mrs. Charles Lake has returned to her home in Hamilton, O., after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thornton.

Thursday, August 17, promises to be another red letter in the history of Farmers' Masonic Lodge of Fredonia. On that day the members of that lodge will hold their annual picnic and outing at Cat Run, a short distance north of Granville. As on all previous occasions, a large attendance is expected this year not only from the lodge itself, but by many friends of the lodge.

Quite a number of the old soldiers in this vicinity are making their arrangements to attend the 26th Soldiers and Sailors' reunion, which will be held at Black Hand on Thursday, August 17. Among the speakers that have been invited are Ex-Senator J. B. Foraker, Harry Daugherty, Governor Harmon, Col. W. A. Taylor and Col. W. T. Curry. It is expected that the reunion will be the biggest in the history of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and Miss Martha Geach recently enjoyed a short visit with friends in Johnstown.

Oberst Burbank of Cincinnati spent a few days with his family here as he is spending the summer in Granville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kenton and three children of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived here Thursday and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith, north of the village, where they will make an extended visit.

Miss Faye Deeds, a charming and accomplished young woman of Bucyrus, O., after a short visit here returned home Saturday.

LICENSE TO WED NEWARK GIRL

A telegram received in this city Friday evening stated that Ernest Thompson, a traveling salesman of Richmond, O., and Miss Charlotte Vanatta, 18, of Newark, had taken out a marriage license in Covington, Ky. Miss Vanatta is a daughter of Mrs. Samuel Burrell of South Fourth street, this city. Mrs. Burrell, when seen by an Advocate reporter, stated that her daughter had left home a couple of weeks ago to visit at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Kline, in Columbus. The marriage of the two young people has not yet been verified.

FRUIT GROWING IN THE ISLE OF PINES

It has been conclusively proven that, where the conditions are right, the raising of oranges, grape fruit, lemons, pineapples, and other tropical fruits, not only pays better than any other agricultural or horticultural pursuit, but affords the most agreeable occupation in which one can engage. The area on which such fruits can be grown for the markets of the United States is limited, however, to a very small part of Southern California, where water sufficient for irrigation can be obtained, and to two or three counties in Florida where soil conditions make profitable production possible. In both states the growing of these fruits is imperiled every year by the frosts which frequently do much damage to both fruit and trees. Absolute freedom from this danger is one of the great assets of the Isle of Pines, a country which promises to become the greatest tropical fruit growing region in the world. In both California and Florida the growers have thousands of dollars invested in appliances of various kinds, designed to protect them, as far as possible, from frosts. The Isle of Pines growers save all this expense and also the great cost of irrigation. Careful experimentation has demonstrated that groves can be matured and fruit produced on the island land and fruit produced on the island lands at little more than half the cost of production in California and Florida. With these advantages it is not strange that the values of island lands have increased 25 per cent in the past year. As the prices at which these lands are selling are still only about one-sixth of what lands cost in the proven fruit districts of California and Florida, it will be strange if their value does not increase much more rapidly in the next year.

The Ohio people who are now living in the Isle of Pines are much pleased with the climate and the remarkable healthfulness of the country as they are with the business outlook in the two years since it was started there has not been a case of sickness in the Ohio Colony. This is the colony founded by Hammond, Hammond & Baker of Columbus, in which so many people of that city and the surrounding country are interested.

Heart and Home Talks

Looking Upward.

The Blessed Hills of Life.

"ALAS, for the life that loses its hills!" exclaims a preacher. More at first, one is inclined to doubt the truth of what he says, but the more it is pondered, the more one sees in it.

Many of us look upon the hills of life as places that mean only toil and hardship. But evidently, we are limiting our vision. Others, it seems, get much more out of life's hills than this, else, would they say, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills?"

Hills have other uses than merely to be climbed, though climbing is a dish to be despised. If it does nothing else, it strengthens our muscles and gives us greater endurance.

But hills give us a new outlook, a higher outlook. When we get up into the hills, we discern things we could not see on the plain. Hills are places of leafy silence, places where we can meditate and commune with the inner self. Hills are the fountain head of the streams that bring the pure, refreshing water to those in the valley below. What would the Nile be without the hills of Abyssinia? What would the Ganges be without the snows of the Himalayas? And so when we think of hills in these ways, we can say with the preacher, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills!"

The life that flows on a monotonous level, that has no mounts of visions, no hills of aspiration, is missing much. The one who finds his life wearing down to this level should look about him for some hills. Rather the wearisome climb that sets the life-giving blood tingling through his veins than such inordinate, deadness. No one can live the joyful life that should be his without the hills.

It is, as has been said, an effort to climb these hills. But we should not think of the effort only, but of the vision that will be ours when they have been surmounted, of the strength that will come as we put each difficulty under our feet, of the inspiration that always comes by learning to do the hard thing. Too many think of the climb and forget the recompense.

Welcome, then, the hills, instead of the monotonous level. Seek them out rather than refuse to climb them. Do not let your path in life lead away from the hills. You may think the road is harder that winds up and down, but it has its rewards. The character grows in strength, in sweetness and we see farther into the meaning of life. One gets closer to the peace the preacher voiced a truth to be heeded when he said, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills!"

Society

Mrs. Russell of the East Side, entertained last Thursday evening, honoring her guests, Miss Amanda Steinhilber of Sidney, and Miss Daisy Steinhilber of Newark. There were present, Miss Gladys Cruse of Sidney, who is visiting Miss Hoskins of Eighth avenue; Miss Fanchon Levering of Cardington, the guest of Miss Glenna Probasco; Miss Elsie Hyndrod; Miss Estelle Hyndrod; Miss Edith Ward; Miss Daisy Steinhilber; Miss Elizabeth Kissel; Miss Lillian Hoskins; Miss Glenna Probasco and Miss Sarah Marsh.

A luncheon was served and prizes were awarded. Miss Levering, Miss Ward and Miss Steinhilber. Mrs. Marsh was one of the hostesses—Columbus Dispatch.

On Wednesday afternoon a merry crowd formed a party to the lake. This was given in honor of Miss Hazel Bergman of Columbus, who is visiting Miss Alta White of East Main street. The afternoon was spent in taking pictures and then a picnic supper was enjoyed. Dancing was enjoyed in the evening.

Those forming the party, chaperoned by Mrs. E. White, were: Misses Hazel Bergman of Columbus, Alta White, Helen Bell, Jeanette Ayers, Sue Taafel, Nellie Howarth, Winona Jenkins, Hazel Heim, Messrs. Nelson Metz, Harold Davis, and Milton La Tell of Pickerington.

One of the pleasant social events of the week was that given on Thursday evening by Miss Helen Bell and Hazel Heim at the latter's home in honor of Hazel Bergman of Columbus.

Music was the principal feature of the evening after which all repaired to the dining room. This was beautifully lighted with candles. Here an elaborate two course luncheon was served. Boxes of candy were given as favors. Those enjoying this affair were: Misses Hazel Bergman of Columbus, Nina Kinnel, Estella Emery, Sue Taafel, Winona Jenkins, Alta White, Helen Bell, Mrs. Carl Heim and Hazel Heim.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kuhniger are chaperoning a party of young people at Buckeye Lake Park. The party is spending a week at a cottage there. Those in the party are: Miss Juliette McPhail, Miss Jessie McPhail, Miss Olive Kent, Miss Mary Gladys Curran and Mr. Maurice Kent.

Friday evening Mrs. Edward Pfeiffer entertained at her home 216 West Main street the employees of the 5-10 and 25c store, in honor of her son Paul's birthday. Also Mr. Charles D. Linehan, who leaves for Cleveland to take charge of the store there. The time was delightfully spent in games and music.

Ice cream and cake were served. They also presented Mr. Paul with a beautiful remembrance. All reported a good time.

Those present were: Misses Ada McGee, Elizabeth Schick, Mabel Brown, Pearl Richard, Daisy Carson, Nellie Martin, Ora Walters, Margaret Shrock, Nina Roney, Messrs. Charles Linehan, Edward Sullivan, LeRoy Dowd, Van Slaughterhaupt, Charles Pfeiffer and Paul Pfeiffer.

One of the pleasant events of the past week was a family dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. Will Flohr, honoring the fourth birthday anniversary of their little daughter, Dorothy Ruth. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Gattlieb Flohr, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dougherty and daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Flohr and daughter Kathryn.

Mrs. Ralph Wyeth entertained with a pretty bridge party on Friday afternoon at her home in the Granville road. Seven tables filled with players were placed for the game and the trophies were received by Mrs. Charles Brown and Miss Helen Willis of Washington C. H.

The out of town visitors who were guests of Mrs. Wyeth were Miss Helen Willis of Washington C. H., and Mrs. Parr Dole of Cleveland.

Mrs. Edwin Besuden is entertaining this afternoon at her home in Hudson avenue with a bridge party. Mrs. Besuden honors Mrs. Oren King of Toledo.

The Tuesday Bridge Club will have for hostess on the club day of next week Mrs. Wilson Heisey, who will entertain at the Country Club.

AGAIN A "SAILOR" SUMMER.

Last year the trig and becoming mannish sailor was temporarily eclipsed by the sloping brimmed mushroom of rough straw, but this year the attractive mannish shape is back in first favor and these hats are made not only of the rough straws, but of the finer milan, which is, of course, rather expensive. Sailors are charming on young girls, but any woman under forty—and even under fifty—may wear the sailor shape if she is dressed in the perfection of tailored style, with hair carefully groomed and smooth beneath the sailor brim. Only very young women should attempt the coquetry of curls beneath a sailor.

Ox-Tail Soup—Have the butcher cut two ox-tails into two-inch pieces wash, drain and dry them, dust with flour and fry brown in one tablespoonful of butter. Cover them with two quarts of water, and simmer slowly for two and a half hours. In the interval prepare one cupful of each of carrot, turnip, onion and celery, cutting the carrot, turnip and onion in thin dice and the celery in half inch pieces; parboil them for twenty minutes in salted water. Add the prepared vegetables to the soup, simmer for three quarters of an hour longer, or until the vegetables are very tender; add one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half of a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne, and one teaspoonful of lemon juice. Take from the fire, add three tablespoons of Madeira (if desired) and serve.

Fig Whip—Pick over and clean a half pound of figs, cook until tender in just enough water to cover and then simmer down until the water is evaporated; chop the figs fine, reserving five to eat into strips to garnish the dish when serving. Beat two egg-whites with two tablespoons of sugar until very stiff, then add a teaspoonful of lemon juice and whip again; sprinkle a buttered mold with some of the whip and add more of the chopped figs, turn in some of the whip and figs until mold is filled; set the dish into a pan of warm water and place in a moderate oven to cook until firm and puffy. Invert onto a dish and surround with whipped cream and figs or serve a custard sauce flavored with lemon juice and the grated rind.

Chicago, July 29.—The strike of the Chicago peddlers—one of the most unique on record, ended today, the men having voted last night to return to their work and end their walkout against the community at large.

They came to the decision after five days of idleness that they must seek another and more peaceful way of bringing about the repeal of the anti-noise ordinance which prevented them from crying their wares. Today strangely silent, but just as eager as ever to drive a bargain, the 4,000 peddlers with wares filled with vegetables and fruits are carrying their wares to the thousands of Chicago households which depend upon the itinerant dealers for their fresh groceries. Those who served through the brief guerrilla campaign on the strikers' kerosene, "wrecking crew" returned to the more peaceful occupations from which they were drafted. The handful of leaders whose word was law with the 4,000 roving merchants during the strike forgot their taste of power in dickerings at the city's back doors. For five days the peddlers refused to serve the city with fresh vegetables because the police had been ordered to enforce the anti-noise law. Small grocers immediately raised prices and housewives complained bitterly. The peddlers saw their trade leaving them and decided to go back to hawking their wares—silent hawking that is—until pressure could be brought to bear on council at its next meeting, six weeks hence.

None are so blind as those who have no object in view.

ENTERTAIN ON ISLAND WITH A HOUSE PARTY

Young Ladies Have Splendid Time at Buckeye Lake—No. 1 of Granville and Vicinity.

Granville, July 29.—During the past week Miss Faye Hulsizer has been entertaining a number of her friends with a house party at the Hulsizer cottage on Ohio Island, Buckeye Lake. This is one of the most beautiful little islands in the whole lake and offers many attractions. The house guests have been Miss Shirley Slack and the Misses Bettie and Rachel Jones and Miss Nellie Starrett. All have been enjoying themselves to the utmost.

Mrs. Frank Atwell and son, Lunn, spent one day this week at Summerland Beach, and are loud in their praises of the big assembly that is being held there.

After a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Croton, Miss Doris Case has returned home. She was accompanied by her cousins, Robert and Amanda Williams, who will visit the families of E. J. Case and Charles Twining.

CURES BARBERS ITCH PROMPTLY

When All Use Fails Goodhair Soap Cures Barbers' Itch.

"Will you kindly send me a cake of your celebrated 'Goodhair' soap, for which I am enclosing 25 cents in stamps. I have been sending to Dayton for the soap as I have been unable to locate your products in any store in this city, and for the whole as I have been unable to find any cost. I spent about $100.00 several years ago, trying to remedy 'barbers' itch' by using the best soap I could find. I have been unable to use your soap, which brought immediate results, at the small price of 25 cents. I have recommended 'Goodhair' to all my friends as 'best ever' for shampoo and other skin diseases, but they also seemed to be unable to secure it here. Just gave the cake away today to a friend, and the same unfortunate who could not locate the product."

WILLIAM D. CULLAHAN, 111 Broadway, N. Y. City.

"Answering your inquiry of 20th Instant, beg leave to state that I saw the young man afflicted with barbers' itch, and he has all traced up, got relief in the first application of Goodhair Soap, and has not used anything else since commencing on the soap."

Yours truly, WM. M. McNEVILLE, L. M. O. If your list will not supply you with Goodhair Soap send 25c to Goodhair Soap Co., Newark, Ohio. Sample on request.

The Blessed Hills of Life.

"ALAS, for the life that loses its hills!" exclaims a preacher. At first, one is inclined to doubt the truth of what he says, but the more it is pondered, the more one sees in it.

Many of us look upon the hills of life as places that mean only toil and hardship. But evidently, we are limiting our vision. Others, it seems, get much more out of life's hills than this, else, would they say, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills!"

Hills have other uses than merely to be climbed, though climbing is not to be despised. If it does nothing else, it strengthens our muscles and gives us greater endurance.

But hills give us a new outlook, a higher outlook. When we get up into the hills, we discern things we could not see on the plain. Hills are places of leafy silence, places where we can meditate and commune with the inner self. Hills are the fountain head of the streams that bring the pure, refreshing water to those in the valley below. What would the Nile be without the hills of Abyssinia? What would the Ganges be without the snows of the Himalayas? And so when we think of hills in these ways, we can say with the preacher, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills!"

The life that flows on a monotonous level, that has no mounts of visions, no hills of aspiration, is missing much. The one who finds his life wearing down to this level should look about him for some hills. Rather the wearisome climb that sets the life-giving blood tingling through his veins than such inertness, deadness. No one can live the joyful life that should be his without the hills.

It is, as has been said, an effort to climb these hills. But we should not think of the effort only, but of the vision that will be ours when they have been surmounted, of the strength that will come as we put each difficulty under our feet, of the inspiration that always comes by learning to do the hard thing. Too many think of the climb and forget the recompense.

Welcome, then, the hills, instead of the monotonous level. Seek them out rather than refuse to climb them. Do not let your path in life lead away from the hills. You may think the road is harder that winds up and down, but it has its rewards. The character grows in strength, in sweetness and beauty. One sees farther into the meaning of life. One gets closer to the infinite. The preacher voiced a truth to be heeded when he said, "Alas, for the life that loses its hills!"

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Proper Way to Drink Milk.
The proper way of drinking milk is little understood. Thousands drink milk without removing the receptacle from their lips. No sooner does this mass of milk reach the stomach than the gastric juices curdle it and form masses of hard, tough and impenetrable curd. If the digestion is sufficiently vigorous it may be taken care of, but few have such digestion. If the milk were taken slowly, at the same time a piece of bread being taken, it would be finely divided, and the curd would be broken up and the processes of digestion would proceed readily. However, it is an evident rule that milk should never be taken rapidly in any considerable quantity, but should be slowly sipped or taken with a spoon or in connection with bread or some dry cereal.

ADVOCATE'S
ANNOUNCEMENT

To Democratic Candidates for City Offices at the Coming Primary Election.

The Advocate will not publish any paid announcements of candidates for city offices at the primary elections to be held this year.

The paper deems it necessary to make this departure from what has been its lifelong custom in consequence of the unusual existing conditions at this time.

The names of worthy candidates will be printed in these columns from time to time as matters of news only, but paid announcements will be excluded absolutely.

FACTS AS TO COMING
PRIMARY ELECTIONS

Will be Held September 5—Petitions of Candidates Must be Filed by August 5.

The primary elections of both political parties are held on the same day.

The primaries this year will be held on Tuesday,
September 5.

All petitions of candidates for the primaries must be filed with the Board of Elections by August
5. (The exact date will be August 6, but that comes on Sunday.)

This is the ruling which has been sent out by the Attorney General.

Persons who desire to have their names on the primary ballot must have their petitions signed and filed by that time.

Petitions of candidates must contain signatures equal to 2 per cent of the party vote in county, mun-cipality, township or ward.

The basis of percentage in each case shall be the vote of the party in such county, municipality, predict, ward or other political subdivision for governor at the last preceding election for state offices.

The facts and dates given in the above notice have been approved as correct in a special letter to the editor of the Advocate from the Secretary of State.

COLLECTING TAXES
FROM DELINQUENT
CORPORATIONS

Attorney General Hogan is collecting delinquent Willis law taxes—those due on the capital stock of corporations—at the rate of $12,000 a week.
A letter to each corporation in default, telling of the provision in the Hol-linger law for cancellation of charter in case of non-payment, is proving a sufficient inducement in most cases for settlement, including back taxes and penalties. General Hogan's Willis law clerk is unearthing numerous foreign corporations doing business in Ohio, who have qualified to operate in this state and have never paid a cent
under the Willis law.

Such reports from Columbus bring good news to all owners of tangible property, such as farmers, small home owners and holders of city lots. The reports show that Democratic state officers are enforcing laws levying taxes on corporations that were dead letters during Republican regimes.
Why was it that Republican officers rigidly enforced tax laws against the common people and closed their eyes when it came to putting tax laws into effect against certain corporations?

For many years Republican campaign funds in Ohio were much larger than those of Democratic state committees. Mark Hanna and his lieutenants were expert corporation milks-ers. Republican boards of tax remission were not a bit backward either in remitting taxes assessed against corporations. But there are no such transactions now.

President Taft's signature to the Canadian Reciprocity Agreement does not consummate it. The Canadian parliament must also ratify it before the measure goes into actual effect.

It is not a pleasant reflection for the millions of the W. L. Trust that they have narrowly escaped the ignominious penalty of the jail. They will begin to think that this is not a free country.

From Ottawa comes the interesting and not improbable story that a campaign fund of a million dollars is to be raised to beat reciprocity and that the American Lumber Trust and the Paper Trust will be heavy contributors. They are quite capable of that,

and their disposition has already been shown. Possibly the Lumber Trust could find some use for Senator Lorimer in the great and good work of protecting the lumber interests from Canadian competition.

MIMIC MARINE MANEUVERS.
New York, July 29.—One of the most formidable fleets of battleships ever assembled in local waters has just finished a carefully planned "attack" on the entrance to New York City.
The "hostile" fleet, flying the stars and stripes and known as the "Blue Squadron," has been opposed by the Red or home fleet. The object of the attack was to determine whether an invading squadron might succeed in entering New York harbor by way of Long Island Sound and the maneuvering of both fleets which has been very elaborate, was carried on off the eastern extremity of Long Island. "The naval engagement" continued for two days and nights with uninterrupted vigor.
The technical results of the "engagement" will probably never be known, since the information would be extremely valuable to foreign powers, but it is understood that the harbor defenses in this direction, when supplemented by fleets of rapid scout boats, backed up by great warships, are sufficient to hold New York against any possible attack.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY,

this broad statement after putting ten and handling in the mean-time a quarter of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, I do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—all I ask is just a chance to show you that I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TO-DAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild, soothing, guaranteed cure that will convince you more in a day than I or anyone else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged, I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. By writing me to-day you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth.

tional Bank, Sedalia, Mo. "Could you

flict to some poor sufferer of Eczema?"

WOODROW WILSON.

One more illustrious recruit has joined the shining talksmith band: the people heard his larynx toot across this sad talk-ridden land. He talked upon the eastern shore, he talked beside the western sea, the prairie lands have heard him roar the platitudes that make men free. He talked so loudly as he went that people said:
"This noisy man is just the stuff for president, and we'll elect him if we can." And I've no doubt that he will win if ever he should have the chance for he who makes the loudest din is always certain to advance. I'd like to see before I croak one president of giant size; some men who left a trail of smoke and scrawled his name across the skies. Some builder who has laid his rails across the desert and the hills; some strong man who has filled the vales with clanging of a hundred mills. The labors of the builders can but little please the voting host; we heap the honors on the man who talks the loudest and the most.

TAFT'S WINNING
ON RECIPROCITY

His Friends Declare That Result Will Help Him.

SHOWS HE'S A MAN OF FORCE

Senator Root Believes That the Newspapers Will Have to Stand by the Canadian Agreement No Matter How It Works—Bailey Tells of His Troubles With the Populists.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, July 29.—[Special.]—It is the belief of most Republicans that President Taft has made a great inning in his fight for reciprocity. "It dissipates the idea," remarked Senator Root, who has for many years been a warm friend and admirer of Taft,
"that the president is just an easy going fat man."

That covers it tersely. The president will stand out as a man of force and vigor, of determination and achievement. The country expects a president to do something, to go out for something and carry it through.
And that is what Taft's friends are banking on for the future.

Newspaper Support.
Senator Root made another observation worthy of his keen mind. I was talking about the support which Taft might expect from the newspapers.

"The newspapers which have been standing back of the president in this fight," remarked the New York senator, "will not all continue to support him. But the newspapers must stand by the Canadian agreement and show that it is a good thing. They cannot well afford to say that it has been a failure after all that they have said about its great beneficial and industrial effects."

There is a great deal in that statement. Naturally those who have been advocating the innovation, for such it is beyond question, cannot very well turn about and say they were wrong.

Bailey Knows Them.
It was with much feeling that Senator Bailey described the Populists.
"About the time we passed the tariff act of 1894 Texas was troubled with Populists," he said. "If any senators were never troubled with them they do not know what is ahead of them if Populists ever come their way."

There are many politicians in the Democratic party who remember distinctly what the Populist movement meant. If it had not been for taking the Democratic party over to free silver and Bryan there is little doubt that for a time the Populists would have overwhelmed the Democratic party in the southern states. The fusion of 1890 saved the Democracy as a party.

There are senators who know nothing about Populism. There are senators who were Populists in those days who are now ardent party men.
Bourne was chairman of the Populist party in Oregon; Gore was a prominent Populist in Texas. Party bars have been jumped by many men in the past,
and party lines are not very strong.

Cornstalks For Paper.
Just after the enactment of a law admitting print paper and wood pulp free from Canada, here comes Congressman Woods of Iowa, asking that the agricultural department make experiments to see if paper can be manufactured from cornstalks. Incidentally, he wants the experiments made in his district.

One on the General.
Leonard Wood has been an army surgeon, colonel of Roosevelt's rough riders, governor general of Cuba, commander in the Philippines and is chief of staff of the army. It is said that not long ago he was on an inspection tour, and at one post his orderly went to an old sergeant and told him to tell the commanding officer of the post that General Wood was outside.

"What General Wood is it?" asked the old sergeant, which shows that fame is not universal.

"Your Picture With Taft."
An enterprising photographer of Washington hangs out a sign, "Your picture with Taft in ten minutes."
Capital visitors, tourists, and others can have themselves photographed standing with the president. These pictures are sent home to make the people believe that the visitors are real chummy with the president. It is simply a trick of photography which tickles the vanity of many tourists.

Digging Up History.
Congressman Henry of Texas wanted to take a shot at the special ambassador, John Hays Hammond, who represented this country at the coronation, and he made a plea for a return to Democratic simplicity in our diplomatic relations with foreign countries.
He told about the humble manner our early diplomats went about European courts, showing that the days of pur-proud diplomacy is a matter of recent innovation.

Hammond happened to be born in San Francisco, which is the home of Congressman Julius Kahn, so Kahn delved into the early diplomatic history and found records showing that our treatment of foreign representatives as well as the conduct of our representatives abroad was oftentimes the very opposite of democratic simplicity and marked by obsequiousness and court forms which would be held up to scorn in these days.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE MEETING

The Democratic County Central Committee met in the convention room of the Court House Saturday in accordance with the last adjournment.
There was a full attendance and much interest was manifested.

Chairman Hill called the meeting to order and made all necessary explanations in the order of the business transacted.

The resignation of F. E. Shabugh as committeeman from Hebron precinct was presented, and D. A. Taylor was appointed in his stead.

The resignation of J. R. Cody of Precinct D of the First ward was presented and John Williams was appointed to the vacancy.

The business of the meeting consisted chiefly of details pertaining to the filing of petitions by candidates for the various positions to be filled this fall. Everything passed off with great harmony and mutual good feeling, showing the interest that is being taken by the Democratic voters of the county.

THE RIB STORY.

No story, perhaps, has been the source of more mental ingenuity throughout the ages than the legend of Adam's rib. Centuries ago, the Jews wove many tales and fables out of the ancient theme. They said for instance, that the great Rabbi Gamaliel had once brought the Scriptures of his nation to the Roman Emperor Hadrian, who, after a study of the Sacred Books, rashly retorted to the Rabbi that, in the story of Genesis, the Creator was little better than a thief, because he had stolen one of Adam's ribs. Gamaliel was bewildered and perplexed, but his fair daughter arose to the occasion. "Let me answer the Emperor!"
she began, "and I will vindicate our holy writings." So on the next day she presented herself before Hadrian.
"O Emperor of the Romans," she cried,
"truly a terrible thing has happened, wherefore we invoke thy aid!" Hadrian was greatly concerned, and asked what it was. The Hebrew maiden replied that at the dead and darkling hour of midnight, a thief had snubly and stealthily entered their abode, and had stolen away a silver flask, though it was true, she added, that had he left a golden flask in its place.
"Why," cried the Roman Emperor,
"that was no robber, but a benefactor;
would that such a one might rob me too!"

The Hebrew maiden smiled a subtle Oriental smile. "Ah!" she said, looking down and blushing sweetly; "then why do you blame the Creator and accuse him of theft, seeing that, if he took one rib from Adam, he left him alive instead?"—Charles Johnston, in Haver's Weekly.

MONTANA RECORD COAL OUTPUT.

Montana broke all her former records of coal production in 1910, according to the United States Geological Survey.
The coal mined amounted to 2,329,870
short tons, with a spot value of $5,329,- 322. The increase in the total value of the coal produced during the year was less marked than the tonnage increase, the average price for the year having been lower than in 1909; nevertheless the total value was the greatest in the history of coal mining in the state.
The coal mines gave employment during the year to 3,817 men, indicating an output of 762 tons per man.

A Peek Into His Pocket

OBITUARY

WILLIAM D. R. SCHLEGEL.
William D. R. Schlegel, a well known and popular young man of this city, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. Kate Schlegel, on North Fifth street, at 3:12 o'clock Saturday morning, after an illness extending over a period of six months. The deceased, previous to his illness, had been engaged as a partner in the Schlegel cafe and also conducted a motion picture show in the Old Opera House building. The deceased was a son of the late John Schlegel, was born Sept. 19, 1881, and was in the 29th year of his age. He is survived by his mother, one brother, Eugene, and one sister, Mrs. Harry Goldenberg of this city. The funeral services will be held at the St. Francis de Sales church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father B. M. O'Boylan, with requiem high mass. Interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

BENJAMIN BIRD.

Benjamin Bird died at his home, corner of Eighth street and Western avenue, at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. Death resulted from cancer. Mr. Bird was a veteran of the Civil War, being a member of the 113th Ohio regiment. He is survived by his widow, one brother, George, residing at 200 South Fifth street, and one sister, Hattie, living in Hebron.

SARAH JANE LILLIARD.
Sarah Jane Bradley was born Sept. 7, 1834; departed this life July 6, 1911, aged 76 years, 9 months and 29 days. She was united in marriage to Curtis Fisher Lilliard Aug. 31, 1854. To this union were born one son and two daughters, one daughter having preceded her to the spirit land. Besides the sorrowing companion and children, she leaves one brother, two sisters, four grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a host of friends to mourn the loss that cannot be restored in this life.

Some ten years ago she united with the Madison Chapel M. E. church and since has lived a consistent Christian life. During her last sickness she bore her sufferings with great fortitude and when the end came it was peaceful and without a struggle.

WILBUR E. NEWTON.
Wilbur E. Newton, the 4-months-old son of Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Newton, died suddenly at the home of the parents in Licking township Friday night at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Newton is pastor of the Licking Baptist church.

The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Stevens of Columbus officiating, services being at the home. Burial in Columbus.

INEXPENSIVE ART.
Next to cleanliness, nothing contributes as much beauty to a home as beautiful pictures. If you will send twenty-five Easy Task soap wrappers and a two-cent stamp to Hewitt Brothers' Soap Company, Dayton, Ohio, they will send you a fine art reproduction, ready for framing. Your grocer knows about those pictures—ask him. His wife knows about Hewitt's Easy Task soap—she uses it—ask her.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank the employees of the American Bottle Co. for the aid and kindness we received from them during the operation and sickness of Mr. O. G. Green. Mrs. O. G. Green.

LICKING COUNTY'S PATRONS MUTUAL

The Board of Directors of the Licking County Patrons Mutual Fire Insurance company, met in the office of the Township Trustees, in this city, Saturday, and transacted routine business. The books of the secretary show that during the past month $43,667 or $86,555 worth of insurance for the year has been written.

During the past year there has only been a loss in the county of $47.50. Licking county property to the amount of $600,000 is insured in this association.

ON SERIOUS CHARGES.

Barl Funk of West Carlisle was arrested Saturday afternoon on the charge of trying to steal a horse. Funk united a horse belonging to Mrs. Montgomery of Pataaskala, as it was standing in Jefferson street. As he started to drive away he was discovered and stopped. He jumped from the rig and ran west on Jefferson street. Police headquarters was notified and Capt. Chas. Swank mounted his motorcycle and gave chase. He overtook the man on Union street, near Wehrle avenue. He was brought back to the police station and turned over to Chief Hindel and Officer Harter and these officers landed him in the city prison.

Some people believe everything they hear and take the rest for granted.

Monetary Will Never Kill England's Postmaster General.

The British postmaster general is what Londoners call a universal provider, a regular department store of public functions.

He will insure your life, give you a little bank to hoard your pennies in, take care of your savings, sell you an annuity, a postal order or a foreign draft, invest your spare capital in a nice little government bond and pay a weekly pension to your aged mother or aunt.

He carries letters and other mail matter, transmits telegrams, cablegrams and wireless messages, maintains an enormous staff of messenger boys and conducts an express company business for every sort of parcel, from a halfpenny packet up to shipments of eggs, dressed poultry and fresh fish.

He collects all the worn copper coins for the British treasury. He has factories for making his supplies and an electric central station of his own in London for lighting his offices, sending the current through his cable ducts. He will sell you a license for a dog, a carriage, a motorcar or a family coat of arms, or he will put in your telephone and take care of your hellos.

At a dinner the other night the postmaster general confessed that he sometimes doubted whether he had any human personality at all. When he thought of his own functions, he said, he was appalled by them. In his official capacity he is responsible for more property than anybody else in the United Kingdom, employs far more people than any individual or corporation, prosecutes more malefactors every day than the public prosecutor and sends out every week more apologies for himself and explanations of his actions than all the rest of the British population combined.—Telephone Review.

LITTLE SORREL

The Favorite Battle Charger of Stonewall Jackson.

Among the many battle steeds ridden during the war between the states by the celebrated Confederate Corps Commander Stonewall Jackson of Lee's army his favorite was a charger affectionately named Little Sorrel by the Second corps of the Army of Virginia. He was about fifteen hands and, as General Longstreet said to the writer, strongly resembled, except in color, President Zachary Taylor's Old Whitey of the Mexican war. Jackson rode him at Bull Run, Winchester, Cedar Mountain, Manassas, Antietam, Harpers Ferry, Fredericksburg and on many other battlefields. He mounted Little Sorrel for the last time at Chancellorsville May 2, 1863, and in the battle was mortally wounded by his own men and died a week later.

General Bradley T. Johnson of Maryland in a letter to the present writer remarks: "Jackson was an ungainly horseman, and when he rode by the troops Little Sorrel would strike off on a run. The general would pull off his cap and ride bareheaded at full speed past miles of shouting Confederates. The saying was when you heard that yell before or behind you on the march. 'There goes old Jack on a rabbit.' When the soldiers started a rabbit they'd scare him to death with yell."

Little Sorrel died at the Soldiers' home near Richmond at the age of thirty-six years and is now to be seen, like Sheridan's Winchester, carefully preserved in a glass case after being prepared by a skillful taxidermist at Lexington, Va.—James Grant Wilson in S. P. C. A. Bulletin.

Sensitive Meredith.

The house at 17 Red Lion square, W. C. London, was once occupied by William Morris, Burne-Jones and Dante Gabriel Rossetti. George Meredith in the days of his extreme penury joined with those other three young men in their bachelor establishment. The state of his boots, we are told by one of the biographers, at length aroused the solicitude of his fellow tenants, who one night stealthily replaced them by a new pair. But Meredith was so much plagued by what was meant in all kindness that he withdrew from the fellowship the next day.—London News.

A Political Placard.

John B. Thompson of Kentucky, who served in both houses of congress, was a master of the art of ridicule. Here is his characterization of the contempt in which party platforms are held after elections:

"The two or three last platform presidents we have had when they got in the car of state and safely seated all around everywhere you could see. 'Do not stand on the platform when the cars are in motion.'—McClure's Magazine.

NEWS OF THE GLASSWORKERS

An advance of from 3 to 10 per cent for the gatherers in the iron mold department was made at the Atlantic City conference. The minimum rate for gatherers is now $1.20 per turn.

Plans are on foot at Wellsburg, W. Va., to remodel and place in blast the old Hellstern factory, which is now known as the Western Bottle Works.

The Mastontown Glass Co., Inc., Mastontown, Pa., are rushing repairs along as rapidly as possible at their window plant and expect to start blowing about Sept. 1.

The Fosteria Glass Co., Moundsville, W. Va., started their plant on July 17 with one furnace in blast. No. 2 furnace will be placed in operation next Monday. There are plenty of orders on hand and prospects are bright for the coming season. The annual meeting of the stockholders was held last Tuesday.

The Barnesville Bottle Co., at Barnesville, O., started to make bottles on July 9 with a full complement of workmen under the management of B. A. Dickey. A good season's run is anticipated.

The Economy Tumbler Co., Morgantown, W. Va., started their factory July 17 with the usual number of shops. Trade conditions are said to be good. They intend to add another stemware shop shortly.

The Gill and Co. factory, Philadelphia, Pa., will start on July 31, operating both plants. They will make prescription ware principally in their Almond street plant.

The Crystal Tumbler Co.'s factory Morgantown, W. Va., is giving employment to 11 punch tumbled shops at present. They expect to operate a double shift soon.

The Murray plant, Philadelphia, Pa., will start in full on Aug. 6, after a five weeks' stop. The firm have plenty of orders on hand and anticipate a good season's run.

The Union Stopper Co., Morgantown, W. Va., started their plant July 17 with all the old employees on the roster.

The Ideal Window Glass Co., at West Union, W. Va., started last Saturday with a full complement of workmen and a good run of glass. It is the intention of the management to operate steadily.

The Seneca Glass Co., Morgantown, W. Va., started July 10 with more orders on hand than can be handled by the present force of workmen. Another punch tumbler shop was added this week.

The tank at the United States Glass Co.'s factory, Gas City, Ind., is again operating after a shutdown of three weeks. The pot furnace was idle two weeks.

Gillinder's Tacony plant, Philadelphia, Pa., will resume operations on July 31. There are plenty of orders on hand and things look bright for a good season. The Oxford street factory will resume about Aug. 15, after many changes and the usual repairs.

Work on the new plant which the Charles Bold Glass Co., Cincinnati, O., are erecting for the installation of more Owens automatic machines is nearing completion.

The Lockport Glass Co.'s plant at Lockport, N. Y., is still in steady operation and it is not known when the factory will be closed down. A new mold shop is being erected and will be completed in the near future.

Baby's Voice
Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is regarded as a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents caking of the breasts, and in every way contributes to strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. EDWARD M. SHEPARD

Noted New York Democratic Leader, Died at White Plains Friday Evening at 6 O'Clock.

Lake George, N. Y., July 29.—Edward M. Shepard, noted attorney and Independent Democratic leader, died at 6 o'clock last evening after an illness of several weeks.

Shepard was born in New York City, July 23, 1850, the son of Lorenzo B. Shepard, leader of the bar in those days and at one time United States district attorney. When his father died, six years later, the boy became the ward of Abram S. Hewitt. When he became old enough he attended Oberlin College for a year and then entered the College of the City of New York, from which he graduated in 1869, becoming a clerk in the law office of John K. Parsons, where he began to study law. In 1875 he was admitted to the bar and practiced for some years alone, finally becoming a member of the law firm of Parsons, Shepard & Ogden, which continued until 1890.

As a special deputy attorney general, Mr. Shepard sent John Y. McKane and 20 of his followers to jail for ballot frauds. He also served on the Rapid Transit Commission and was a member of the commission appointed to fix the value of the plant of the Long Island Water Supply Company.

Mr. Shepard was also an author having written a life of Martin Van Buren. He was a director of the College of the City of New York and a member of many clubs of the city.

Saw His Chance.

When all Westchester county was thrilling with the prospect of a rail road competition an agent of the new company that was to build went through Pelham Manor buying property for the right of way. He rang the doorbell of one resident, who was living in a rented house at $50 a month.

"Will you take $6,000 for this house?" demanded the agent.

"Oh, no, I couldn't," stammered the tenant.

"Will you take $8,000?"

"I couldn't do it."

"Well, think it over."

Mr. Tenant foxily runs around to the owner of the property and gets an agreement to sell him the property for $6,000 if he can raise the money.

The railroad agent returns.

"Will you take $9,000?"

"No."

"Ten?"

"Yes."

"Done!"

Oh, yes, there is such a thing as luck when a man has the wit to see it coming his way.—New York Press.

Killing an Unfaithful Lover.

When a Japanese girl has been slighted by her lover she revenges herself according to the following quaint custom: In the dawn of the early morning she rises and puts on a white robe and white cloths. Round her neck she hangs a small mirror, which falls to her breast, and on her head she puts a metal crown with three points, each point bearing a lighted candle. In her left hand she carries a small figure of straw or rags—supposed to represent her unfaithful lover—and this she nails to one of the sacred trees surrounding the family shrine. She then prays for the death of the man, vowing that if this comes to pass she will pull out the nails which are hurting the sacred tree and make offerings to comfort her family god. Every night she comes to the shrine, strikes in two more nails and makes the same prayer, her idea being that the god, to save his tree from further injury, will kill her lover.

GATORS TO PROTECT OKLAHOMA RESERVOIR

Lawton, Okla., July 29.—To protect its supply of drinking water the city of Lawton will purchase two or more alligators and place them in the reservoir in the Wichita Mountains. The city council has begun looking around for the saurians and will secure the largest ones possible. With the alligators in the reservoir the council hopes to keep small boys and others from swimming in the pool.

WANTS MORE BOY SCOUTS IN PORTO RICO.

H. H. Shaffer, Scout Commissioner of Porto Rico, has appealed to the Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America for a Field Secretary to carry on the work of organizing Scout troops throughout the island. He wants the Boy Scout movement extended because he says it will help in the Americanization of the Porto Ricans. Such work will aid Porto Ricans in becoming more imbued with the ideals of American institutions. The results will be helpful to the United States government and to commercial interests as well.

Shaffer, who arrived in this country a few weeks ago to attend the tenth annual reunion of his class at Princeton, has been working among the Boy Scouts more than a year down in Porto Rico, when he appeared at the National Headquarters. He was very enthusiastic over the results obtained from the Boy Scout work in Porto Rico.

"You have no idea," he said, "the great amount of good that the Boy Scout organization has done in Porto Rico. Our troops consist of two Porto Rican boys to one American boy. The boys are taught to salute their flag, to learn the American National hymn, and to know something about the American ideals of citizenship. The Porto Rican boys are learning things about America that they don't get in school, and the school teachers, though Americans, hesitate in emphasizing too strongly the American ideals. The Boy Scout movement, however, is doing this and the Porto Ricans are carrying their knowledge right into their homes and already there is greater respect for America. It seems to me that if the National Organization send a field secretary to the island to organize troops, it would be a practical educational work and would bring untold benefits to the country."

Shaffer has become so exceedingly interested in the Boy Scout work that he is eager to remain in this country and become a worker in the organization.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE FOR A SORE ARM

Boston, Mass., July 29.—Pitcher Narel, of the Boston Americans, secured by President John I. Taylor of the Red Sox, from the Pittsburgh club of the National League, is taking Christian Science treatment for his arm. Narel has been troubled with a bothersome wing ever since joining the Red Sox, and upon return of the Red Sox to this city, without letting any of his teammates know of his decision, determined to try out the Christian Science practitioners and declares that he is already being greatly benefited thereby.

So far as known, Narel is the first major league twirler who has gone to Christian Science in an effort to get into condition, and it is but natural that his experiment will be watched with interest by ball players all over the country. Harry Porter, the great high jumper and holder of many records, is a Christian Scientist, and has always declared that to Christian Science he owed very largely the success he has made in his athletics competitions.

FITZGERALDS ENJOY COLORADO FISHING

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Fitzgerald of this city, who are making a Colorado scenic trip, have enjoyed some excellent sport while camping in the Pike's Peak region.

At Crystal Park Monday the Fitzgeralds caught an even dozen and a half silver back beauties which averaged two and three-quarter pounds each. In writing to a friend of the "country of their camping ground Mr. Fitzgerald said:

"Crystal Park at an elevation of nearly 9,000 feet above sea level, and 9,700 feet above Colorado Springs, nestles a natural amphitheatre of 1,200 acres, studded with beautiful open groves of pine, spruce and quaking aspen, with a lovely growth of meadow grass, exquisite flora and ferns and offers any number of delightful nooks and corners for an ideal outing place. We have none of those hot days out here like we experienced in Newark several weeks ago. This afternoon we expect to mount mules and ascend Pike's Peak. The elevation is 14,108 feet. I am told that from the top the view is superb beyond words. The world lies spread below and the eye wanders over mile after mile of plain and range. A cog road hauls passengers from Manitou to the summit or ascent can be made by foot, horse or mule.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Fourth of July
Fireworks in a Bedroom Grate

THESE had been rather a fearful time before Jack and Evelyn crept into bed. Evelyn had loaned Jack her new doll to use in the new cart, which could be harnessed to the dog. Sheppie had overturned the cart and its doll passenger and upset Master Jack, who had thus cut his hand.

"Dear, dear," said daddy as he came in. "Crying about a little thing like a cut? I suppose it won't be safe for me to bring home any Fourth of July fireworks this year if you have become so delicate."

Jack stopped sniveling. Evelyn forced a smile.

"We are always careful about fireworks," Evelyn added.

"I was always careful about fireworks, too," said daddy soberly. "You never can tell about fireworks. When I was a boy father never cared to let us children have many fireworks or things of that sort. He thought they were dangerous. He always had a lot of skyrockets and roman candles and colored fire for an evening display. His system was much admired by the neighbors."

"I remember that he was unusually particular one Fourth in telling us that this year we could not spend any of our money for fireworks or torpedoes. There had been a good many accidents the Fourth before, and he was not sure he would have even the usual evening fireworks."

"It happened to be an unusually cold summer. One evening father came in with a sore throat. Mother said she would call in the doctor. She sent one of my brothers after him while she prepared father for bed by giving him 'ee' a mustard bath."

"Run up and light a little fire in the spare room," mother said to me. "Your father's room looks so untidy I hate to have Dr. Brown go in there."

"So upstairs I raced with some wood. My younger brother brought coal and matches. There was a fine bundle of paper in the grate, and I decided to lay the fire right over it. When we touched a match you could have heard it a dozen blocks away. Father dashed over the mustard bath and tore upstairs in his bare feet, mother, shrieking after him."

"When the doctor got there my brother and I needed more attention than father. For safety's sake he had stored the fireworks in the grate in the spare room, thinking we children would never think of looking for them there. In summer a fireplace seemed the safest place in the world."

"After that he let us have our fireworks, but the evening exhibitions were cut out."

"Father said our fingers and toes must take their chances, but he couldn't afford to have the house blown up over his head."

BUSINESS MEN HOLD AN OUTING ON BEAVER FIELD

About 30 of the business men's club of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium boarded a late afternoon car Friday and went up to the classic village of Granville, where they held a most delightful outing on Beaver Field.

An hour or two was spent in playing baseball, volleyball, enjoying a swim in the Racoon and partaking of a fine supper that had been prepared for the occasion. One of the enjoyable features was the presentation by the club to Mr. Livingston, the retiring physical director of the Newark Y. M. C. A., who is to become physical director of Denison University, with a handsome watch fob, as an expression of their appreciation of his services during the time he has been with them.

Mr. Livingston, although greatly surprised, was equal to the occasion and responded in a few well chosen words, in which he thanked the donors for the token of appreciation, and assured them he would ever have fond recollections of his connection with the Newark Y.M.C.A.

When a cake of soap is worn nearly thin enough to break stick it to the new cake by putting both in quite warm water, then press firmly together. When cold it will be one solid cake. This does away with small pieces of soap and there is no waste.

GLAD HEARTS.

There are souls in the world who have the gift of finding joy everywhere and of leaving it behind them when they go. Their influence is an inevitable gladdening of the heart. It seems as if a shadow of God's own gift had passed upon them. They give light without meaning to shine. These bright hearts have a great work to do for God.—Faber.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W., Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full directions. If your children trouble you in this way, don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

FOREIGNER WAS STRUNG UP AND ROBBED OF MONEY

Sharon, Pa., July 29.—Strung up by the neck and tortured while four robbers rifled his pockets and helped themselves to his coat and shoes, Julius Zirski nearly lost his life.

Zirski was on his way from Jersey City to a point in Ohio, and stopped off in South Sharon to meet friends. Four strangers enticed the man to Perrona and attacked him. First a rope was thrown around his neck and he was hauled from the ground.

While struggling to get his breath, Zirski says the robbers dragged him and pinched and prodded him, and then took about $10 out of his pockets. Then he was let down, and he lapsed into unconsciousness.

After he revived he wandered as far as Vine street, this place, where he was found by a countryman.

Zirski is expected to die from the effects of the torture.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to announce that on Tuesday, August 1st, we shall open The Newark Auto Co., on Canal street (between Third and Fourth streets). We shall be pleased to see auto owners who wish repairs, or persons who are contemplating purchasing new or second hand cars.

We have a very attractive proposition to offer to auto users, regarding the taking care of, and inspecting cars weekly. Particular attention shall be given in our machine department. Give us a trial and we shall convince you that we know our business. FREDERICK E. RICHARD, J. E. OWENS, GEORGE BEAN 7-24-61

MEN'S MEETING

As announced one week ago, the regular monthly meeting for July of the Christian Men's Union will be held in the First Presbyterian church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. Frank L. Johnson, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will deliver the address.

Especially all men who can sing are requested to be present promptly on time as it is desired to have a song service by the men immediately preceding the address. Heretofore, the men have appeared to enjoy the song service as well as any other of the meeting. This will be the last meeting of the summer until the regular fall and winter campaign is opened. It is hoped that the men will respond freely by their presence and give a royal welcome to our new secretary. There is always great inspiration in large numbers. Every man interested should do all he can in the way of announcing this meeting. It is also hoped that this meeting will be announced in all the churches of the city tomorrow morning.

MAMMOTH PARADE WILL BE HELD

One of the greatest and most inspiring scenes of the National Convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, to be held in Columbus, August 20-23, will be the mammoth parade in which it is expected there will be at least twelve thousand men in line.

The climax of this great demonstration of Christian citizenship will be the marching of the bands and banners on Broad street, in front of the reviewing stand in the State House grounds. The bands named will play National and religious hymns marching past reviewing stand, the Cathedral, and Memorial Hall, followed by thousands in serried ranks of uniformed men of the Knights of St. John and other societies, who will come to Columbus for the occasion from all sections of the State of Ohio. On the reviewing stand will be state officials, dignitaries of the church, priests, and citizens who contributed to the expenses of the convention.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT PARK PROVES SUCCESS

The East Main Street United Brethren Sabbath school, 250 strong held its annual picnic at Mountbalders park Friday, and the affair was the greatest in the history of the thriving Sabbath school from every point of view, the day was ideal, and everybody seem to be just ripe for the event.

There was ice cold lemonade for all day long for all and a big picnic dinner at the noon hour, and the "grub" was so plenty that there was enough left for a big supper at sundown.

The day was spent in just such pastimes as make a Sabbath school picnic a success; several large swings were put up and athletic sports of all kinds were indulged in from the cradle roll to the oldest members of the home department, and the day ended with a red hot game of baseball between the single and married men and resulted in a score of 2 to 3 in favor of the single men.

A short literary program was held just after the noon hour and Mrs. Russell, the photographer, was present.

out and made a photo of the happy group.
The guessing contest as to the number of soup beans in a glass jar, in which several prizes were offered proved very interesting.

Parson's Poem a Gem.
From Rev. H. Stubenvoll, Allison, Ia., in praise of Dr. King's New Life Pills.
"They're such a health necessity, In every home these pills should be. If other kinds you've tried in vain, USE DR. KING'S And be well again." Only 25c at F. D. Hall's.

Impressive Services At Elevation of New Archbishop

Philadelphia, July 29.—The Most Rev. Edward F. Prendergast the new archbishop of the diocese of Philadelphia, received his elevation to his office in the Catholic church at a ceremony at the cathedral here that was unusually impressive. The service was attended by a representative of the pope, about 300 priests and many high public officials. Archbishop Prendergast succeeds the late Archbishop Ryan.

ARCHBISHOP PRENDERGAST

COURTSHIP IN MARRIAGE.

Many men are prone to consider that their courtship days end with marriage, but the little attentions which the wife used to delight in are still dear to her. May be flowers and candy are too expensive now, but a man can bring joy to her heart by making her work easier. Have her try a cake of Hewitt's clean, white Easy Task soap. It will do half of the work which has been wearing her out; she can keep her hands soft and white, and the house will be kept neat and clean.

HANDSOME CARS MADE AT NEWARK EXCITE COMMENT

Four handsomely furnished cars to be used in the limited interurban service between Cleveland and Lima passed through Findlay Wednesday enroute to Cleveland in preparation for the inauguration of the service soon. The cars were operated in trains of two. Details of the new service are being completed and the cars will be in operation in a short time.

The new cars are the finest equipped passing through the city. They are considerably longer than the interurbans now entering the city and are furnished with cloth upholstered seats. They represent the latest idea in interurban cars and are equipped with high power motors of great speed. The cars are painted yellow and bear the names of Lima and Cleveland, limited, and were made by the Jewett Car Works at Newark, O.—Findlay Republican.

ATTENTION COMRADES.

Benjamin Burd, a member of Lemert Post, has answered the last roll call and his burial will take place Monday at Cedar Hill. The comrades will assemble at the office of the cemetery at 2:30 o'clock to assist in paying the last tribute of respect to this, another one of our old comrades. R. C. Bigbee, Com.

200 pairs Men's Low Cuts; tan, gun metal and patent leather; $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00. Sale price, 25 per cent off. Stephan's. 25d6

PREDICT ATTACK UPON CAPITOL OF BLACK REPUBLIC

Port Au Prince, July 29.—An attack on the capital of the black republic was expected today. The rebels pushed their advance lines to within three miles of the city last night and Port au Prince was hemmed in on the land side. But for the presence of the U. S. cruiser Des Moines in the harbor, there would be a panic and much disorder. The garrison at Port au Prince today in response to urgent requests from the American, French and German consuls, who represented that the rebels were preparing to shell the town, despite the warning of the American government that the bombardment of fortified places would not be permitted. The cruiser Chester is at Cape Haytien and the naval tug Peoria was sent to Gonaves, another threatened point.

The wounding of a German lumberman and the destruction of his camps by the rebels yesterday, it is feared will lead to strong representations from Germany. A German cruiser is on the way to Haytien waters.

LODGE NEWS

I. O. O. F.
Olive Branch Lodge 34, met Tuesday evening and a good time was had. There were numerous responses for the good of the order. Next Tuesday evening there will be work in the second degree. Every brother is requested to be present and help confer the degree. Brothers, there will be practice in the first degree next Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. It is earnestly requested of every brother to be on hand.

Modern Woodmen.
Cedar Camp No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America met in regular session Monday night. Two applications for membership were received and elected to membership. The committee on reception to the Forester Team which will be held on next Monday night reported progress and reported that the program was about finished and that they expected to have a very good program consisting of short speeches, singing and recitations and requested that they would like to see a good turn out of the members. There will also be refreshments served and the committee have prepared for a good crowd.

K. O. T. M.
Octagon Tent will meet Wednesday, Aug. 2, in Mayflower Hall. A good attendance is desired as Jessie Wise will be there and we expect him to tell of some of the things he saw and heard at the Maccabee world carnival and supreme tent review at Cleveland. The finance auditor also expects to make his report. The R. K. also has some information for you. Sir Kt. Fred Dupler, who was injured in the collapse of the bleachers at the ball park, is still unable to leave his bed. He lives at 63 Gairnor avenue. Sir Knights, you know your duty.

Loyal Order of Moose.
Thursday night was the banner night for Licking Lodge. A bunch of new ones—the boys are up on their toes and we are going to make it 600.

A vote of thanks was given Bro. Joseph Kustor for the fine spread Thursday night. Twenty-five new books were donated to the library. The families of the Moose are welcome to the library at anytime. Monday afternoon is visitors day.

Brother Hamilton has been called to Indianapolis on business. Bro. Jack Martin has taken the management of the Coshocton theatre. Brothers Hamilton and McFarland were elected delegates, to the convention at Detroit, Aug. 21. Trustees meet Tuesday evening, Aug. 1. House committee meets every Tuesday. Lodge meets every Thursday.

Royal Neighbors.
Daisy Camp, No. 2574, Royal Neighbors of America, met Wednesday evening with a good attendance. One candidate was admitted to membership. It was decided to hold a picnic at Buckeye Lake Aug. 4. All Neighbors' and Modern Woodmen's families are invited. Come and help have a jolly good time. Take the 1 o'clock car.

$3.50 RECIPES CURES WEAK KIDNEYS, FREE

Relieves Urinary and Bladder Troubles.

bles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Backs.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the aching, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine, the foreboding and the red-of-the-head aches, the stitches and pains in the back, the growing muscle weakness, spots before the eyes, yellow skin, sluggish bowels, swollen ankles or ankles, leg cramps, constant short breath, sleeplessness and the despondency? I have a remedy for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $250 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Mr. A. E. Robinson, 1429 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. You see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free if you can use it and cure yourself at home.

SANDUSKY SHOPS TO BE RE-ESTABLISHED

It has been given out that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad shops are to be re-established in Sandusky and that more coal is to be handled over the Newark and Sandusky division, and also at the docks in Sandusky. G. A. Goldhaugh of Newark, who is the foreman, is already on the ground. It is stated that he has already put thirty men to work and that this number will be increased later. Some time ago it was decided to abandon the Sandusky shops, in the interest of economy, and much of the machinery, including boilers, air compressors, etc., were moved away. The reason for re-establishing the shops is not known, but it seems that the retraining plan did not work out very satisfactorily. Now the machinery is to be moved back to Sandusky and installed in the shops, and it is thought that the force of men will be greatly increased after the machinery is in shape.

SUFFRAGE SENTIMENT.

Miss Bertha Knote in the August World's Work quotes some of the epigrammatic utterances that the suffrage leaders have composed for the sake of giving publicity to their cause:

"Citizens eligible by law to vote—white men, black men, red men, drunken men, deaf men, dumb men, blind men, lame men, sick men, rag men, bad men; citizens ineligible by law to vote—minors, idiots, insane, criminals, women."

This inscription appeared on some yellow blotters that were left as souvenirs by the Chicago women on their visit to the state capital.

"The Three R's—the Right to Love, the Right to Marry, the Right to Vote"

floats from the banner of the Boston suffragists as they marched up Beacon Hill to the State House.

"There is a sweeter word than home and love, that word is liberty"

was the motto on the banner of the men's brigade in the New York suffrage parade that produced delighted hoofs from one end of the avenue to the other.

FREE BRIDGES.

The ancient practice of collecting bridge tolls has been at last abandoned in New York harbor, the great bridges have been made free for all traffic. Experts believe that this act sounds the knell of the ferries. Already one ferry has been abandoned because of the tolls under the rivers and it is expected that an enormous amount of traffic will now be deflected from these ancient carriers. One of the great advantages of this change will be the freeing of the harbor of scores of ferry boats and the saving of much valuable room for the ocean-going steam ships. Without the ferry boats for harbor will be much roomier for the great liners to maneuver more freely. This space will also make it possible to extend the piers to accommodate the 200 foot steamers.

AVIATOR HAD A NARROW ESCAPE IN FALL OF MACHINE

New York, July 29.—Earle L. Ovington, the aviator, had the most remarkable escape of his life yesterday while trying the new monoplane of William Evans, a young aviator from Ohio, who has joined the Baldwin camp at Mineola.

The motor appeared to be working perfectly and Mr. Ovington soared away gracefully. When over one of the ditches near Stewart avenue, which is being made into a highway, the feed pipe from the gasolene tank failed, and after a few faint sputters the motor stopped.

The monoplane came suddenly to the ground, the front wheels striking the soft earth at the side of the road and the machine turning turtle. Mr. Ovington was pinned beneath the monoplane, some of the wires resting on his neck and head. It was fully 10 minutes before he was extricated. The heavy American-built motor was scarcely six inches from his head.

All the other aviators were at the north end of the field at the time, and all were about exhausted by their long run across the field to Mr. Ovington, who, beyond a severe shaking up, was unhurt. The high sides of the framework no doubt saved him from serious injury.

PROGRAM FOR THE JOHNSTOWN CHATAUQUA

The second annual Johnstown Chatauqua will be held in the Public School Grove at Johnstown, Licking county, Ohio, August 1st to 6th, inclusive. After the excellent course of last year every one is anticipating a most enjoyable and profitable meeting. Every one last year who attended the Johnstown Chatauqua was not only entertained but edified by the excellent entertainments and lectures. This year in a six days' program the management hopes to give an equal amount of entertainment, and while the program is out to six days, it is equal to that of last year. Here is a brief mention of the program:

Tuesday, Aug. 1—2:30 p. m., Gov. Glenn of North Carolina; 8 p. m., illustrated lecture "The Romance of the Reaper." C. Bond Lloyd.

Wednesday, Aug. 2—2 p. m., lecture, Edward Russell Perry; 8 p. m., Indian games by 10 Ojibway Indians; 8 p. m., Hiawatha Indian Passion Play.

Thursday, Aug. 3—2 p. m., American Cowboy Band (20 people); 2:45 p. m., lecture, J. D. Garrison, subject, "Peter Piper;" 8 p. m., concert, American Cowboy Band.

Friday, Aug. 4—2:30 p. m., lecture, Dr. Henry Clay Riser; 8 p. m., dramatic recital, Passion Play of Oberammergau, by Dr. S. A. Stephan.

Saturday, Aug. 5—2:30 p. m., concert, Baltimore Stars; 8:30 p. m., lecture, Hon. H. T. Rainey; subject to be announced.

Sunday, Aug. 6—2:30 p. m., concert, Earnest and Richeson; 3 p. m., lecture, Dr. Geo. Gibson Kerr, "The Value of a Boy and How to Get the Worth of Him;" 8:40 p. m., lecture, Dr. G. G. Kerr, "How to Make the Young Man Safe."

RAILROAD BUILDING NOT STOPPED

For several years past, the cry of the railroads that conditions are unfavorable for the building of new road has created the impression that very little new construction has been under way. This does not appear to be the case. Poor's statistics, just out for the year 1910, are a safe index, and show that there has been a fair amount of new construction right along.

In the past three years, the increase in second track, sidings, etc., has averaged more than 3,000 miles a year, nearly 2,500 miles, and this of course represents railroad expansion also. The annual building of track in the past three years has thus exceeded 7,000 miles a year, with last year a trifle the best of the three. Assuming the use of rails averaging 55 pounds per yard, the rail consumption was about a million tons a year. Estimates made in the past have shown that the steam railroads are wearing out about a million tons of rails a year, so that there is two million tons a year in these two items, while as contributing to rail tonnage there is also the consumption by electric lines and by various industrial enterprises, together with the exports of both standard and light rails.

The iron trade has possibly been misled somewhat in its estimate of the total amount of railroad buying in recent times, involving iron and steel, first by the fact that railroad managers have been insisting all along that they cannot buy, and second by the fact that with the very great increase in iron and steel demand from other sources the railroad demand is diluted and does not make as spectacular a showing as formerly.

A new method of extracting radium from pitchblende has been adopted in the mines at Cornwall, England.

PRACTICE OF GUN TOTERS IS TO BE STOPPED

Cleveland, O., July 29.—That the police are determined to stop the carrying of guns by garment strikebreakers, guards and others was shown today when the police made wholesale arrests and searched many men who were found in the strike district.

Although the 11 gun arkers have been arrested as a result of the day's work by the police.

Charles Woodward, a guard, H. H. Watson, head bookkeeper for the H. Black company factory, and a negro chauffeur were arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The men were searched as they drove to the entrance of the Black factory in an automobile.

A revolver was found in the battery box of the machine. All were taken to Central Police station.

The order is intended to put an end to the premises use of weapons which so far has been a feature of the disorder due to the strike.

Politeness Helps to Make Shopping Easy

The girl who possesses or cultivates the gift of politeness carries in her hand a fairy wand that will smooth, if it does not entirely efface, many of life's rough places.

And nowhere does it work such wonders as in the crowded shops. One girl recently declared that she never found shopping irksome and rarely had a disagreeable experience.

Asked what was the method she employed, she laughingly replied: "Plain garden politeness—the sort our grandmothers used." She then proceeded to lay bare a method that will turn a task into a pleasure and rob it of its customary disfigurement.

When she went shopping she took with her all she possessed of politeness and charm. When she asked to be shown a ribbon, velvet or what not, she used her prettiest manner, and she confessed that the results were amazing. A smile, a gracious word of thanks, a pretty appeal for the opinion of the girl who is serving one—these simple and everyday courtesies will often make an errand a pleasant and satisfactory episode.

There has been so much criticism of the shop girl and her casual indifference to the shoppers' necessities that one should say a word in her behalf.

The average shop girl is eager and willing to please. It is natural that she should be, for in most cases it means her livelihood. If the girl whose life possesses no more disagreeable duty than her morning shopping would stop to think of the dull routine of the girl's life behind the counter, she would replace impatient words and intolerant mood with kindly glance and friendly manner.

MILLIONAIRE CAMPS ALONG ROADSIDE

Cleveland, O., July 29.—W. M. Lettwich, millionaire resident of Nashville, Tenn., camped out Thursday night in a tent by the roadside between Elvira and Cleveland. His family, together with Marie Cobbs of Springfield, Tenn., and Shirley Hibbitt, Lettwich's valet, completed the touring party. They drove their big car into Cleveland yesterday.

Lettwich, who can sign and have honored a check sufficiently large to purchase any hotel in Cleveland, although everything within a hotel.

"Stuffy places," he said. "Give me the open air and let those who desire occupy a two-by-four room in a ten-dollar-a-day hotel. Never slept better in my life than last night out under the stars."

Lettwich's automobile is a veritable house on wheels. He carries the most complete camping outfit obtainable, and never stops at a hotel while touring.

CONSCIENCE

Smote Man Who Beat Hotel Out of $1.50 Fifty Years Ago and He Makes Restitution.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 29.—A claim of over 50 years' standing and involving the rather insignificant original sum of $1.50 was settled here a few days ago. General Harrison Grey Otis of Los Angeles, Cal., represented the individual who fifty years ago departed from the McClure hotel, leaving behind him an unpaid board bill of $1.50.

Two months ago H. C. Ogden, editor of the Wheeling News, received a letter from Gen. Otis, which stated that the general represented the erring guest and explained that he wanted to settle with the estate of the management of the hotel at that time. Capt. Wm. Carr was manager of the hotel at that time and it was discovered that the administrator of his estate was Mrs. Veneta G. Herron of 3101 Washington boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

With matters thus simplified Gen. Otis at once forwarded $50 in gold to square off the original account of $1.50. This money has been turned over to Plattoff Zane, who will at once forward it to Carr's administrator.

Capt. Carr was a physician, who moved from Virginia to Wheeling in 1853, and up until 1860 conducted the McClure Hotel. About the time of the breaking out of the civil war he moved to Chicago and died there.

TRAIN DERAILED

had sprained limbs, but only a few bones were broken.

It was shortly after 2:30 o'clock that the accident occurred. The train, driven by a Lehigh Valley engineer, was pounding through the night at high speed.

A rail, according to the theory of the trainmen themselves, had been weakened to the breaking point, but the defect was not visible to the eye of the track walker. When the heavy locomotive struck the rail the break was made it is believed. The succeeding coaches tore the broken end from its fastening to the ties.

When the two rear coaches struck the break they bounded from the track to the ties. The first intimation that the engineer had of trouble was when he felt the tug of a great weight upon his engine.

Looking over his shoulder as he jammed on the air brakes he saw the two rear coaches reeling, and the next instant both of them toppled over the embankment.

Passengers in the sleepers were tumbled out of their berths and thrown in heaps along the side and top of the inverted car. Dazed and terrified women shrieked, while men fought madly to get their bearings.

Passengers in the other cars, who had been thrown about by the jolting and sudden stop, heard screams and groans from the men and women in the cars which lay prone on their sides.

Rushing from their beds and seats many of them in their night clothing the unhurt passengers joined the trainmen in rescuing those in the cars which had been wrecked.

It at first was supposed that many had been killed, but one person after another emerged from the derailed cars. A few were knocked unconscious by blows and had to be carried out. Others were able to get out without assistance, although every one in the two coaches was more or less painfully injured.

In the darkness the men worked at random, unable to ascertain clearly the extent of the damage done. The anxiety of parents, who had been separated from their children in the dark, and of husbands and wives, who awoke to find their partners missing, added to the confusion.

It was daylight before it became positively known that all the passengers were alive.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin of Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure. It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free at F. D. Hall's."

MAN'S ASHES

THROWN FROM URN IN ORDER TO HAVE VESSEL TO MAKE GIN RICKEYS IN.

Quarantine Employee Gives Startling Testimony Before Governor Dix's Commission.

New York, July 29.—There were five or six of us, and we were awful thirsty—wanted a gin rickey. We didn't have anything to make it in, so one of the men went into the laboratory and got the jar which contained Colonel Waring's ashes. He had died of yellow fever on his way up from Cuba. I threw the ashes out, made the gin rickey and we all had a drink."

Arthur Denyse, who worked at quarantine until three years ago, startled Governor Dix's special commission which is investigating affairs at the New York quarantine station by relating this story on the stand yesterday.

Records show that Col. George E. Waring, Jr., widely known as a sanitary engineer, died of yellow fever on a steamer coming from Cuba, on October 29, 1898, but it was not Waring's ashes that Denyse disturbed, according to other advices at quarantine.

Dr. A. H. Doty, health officer, issued an official statement tonight, in which he said Colonel Waring was cremated and that his ashes were put in an urn at the place of cremation and later forwarded to his family.

Colonel Waring achieved success, which brought him his greatest public notice, perhaps, in reorganizing the street cleaning department of New York. Several of the larger cities in the country, including Memphis and Buffalo, were equipped with modern sewage systems by him, as well as Santiago, Cuba, whose system he installed in 1887.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Newark Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Newark are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

F. Lisey, Newark, O., says: "I was afflicted with kidney complaint and my back was so sensitive that I was in misery when I attempted to get up after sitting. Sharp pains often darted through me and other symptoms of kidney complaint were in evidence. This trouble resisted every treatment until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me permanently and I have no hesitation in confirming all I have previously said in their praise."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

WANTS MEAN OPPORTUNITY.

The Want Columns are brimful of opportunities for gainful transactions.

Through the Wants the employer meets the employee, the business man gets in touch with the skilled, competent worker to whom he may entrust a difficult task, the housewife locates the servant that is needed most in the home, the buyer and seller become acquainted, and the landlord and the tenant come to know one another.

The Wants each day convey definite information of peculiar interest to many who seek out the advertisers, with the result that many gainful transactions are consummated.

It is indeed remarkable the volume of business that results through Want Advertising, for the Wants are far reaching in their influence, extending to every line of endeavor in business and the household.

SHOCK

Of Accidentally Shooting Brother May Prove Fatal—Mother is Also Prostrated.

Claysville, Pa., July 29.—George the 8-year-old son of Wm. Lindsay of near this place, is dead, with a rifle bullet in his head, and his brother Lawrence, aged 15 years, is unconscious from the shock of the death and may die.

The boys had gone to the woods near their home for the purpose of shooting ground hogs, Lawrence being armed with a rifle. Their mother, who was alone in the house, heard a shot, followed by screams from her elder son. She rushed out to find both boys on the ground. George was dead and Lawrence was in a hysterical condition. George had been shot by his brother Lawrence.

The older boy was carried into the house and lapsed into unconsciousness, from which he has not been aroused.

The mother also is prostrated and it is feared that the shock to her may prove fatal.

HOUSE CLEANING HORRORS.

The time for the great annual round-up of dirt of all kinds, microbes and all that are obnoxious to the cleanly housekeeper is about at hand. It is a hard piece of work and means tired heads and hands, fagged out mentally and bodily.

Hewitt's Easy Task soap will reduce this work one-half and make the home brighter than ever. It is as good for woodwork as for bed linen, lace, curtains, porcelain, dishes and all that is washable. Five cents a cake.

HARMON TO RETURN

To Fill Few Engagements and Then Resume His Vacation.

Columbus, July 29.—Governor Harmon will put in all of next week in Ohio, the greater part of it, however, in cities and towns out in the state.

Information was received at the executive office today that the governor will leave his summer home in Michigan next Sunday and that Monday will be spent by him visiting and inspecting the rifle range at Port Clinton.

On Tuesday he will be in Columbus to look after an accumulation of official matter at the executive office and the following day he will go to Cincinnati. Governor Harmon goes there to be a guest of the Duckworth Club.

The remainder of the week, it is understood, will be put in by the governor at Columbus, and it Cedar Point, where the members of the legislature are to meet in annual reunion.

SUFFRAGETTE'S FEAT.

New York, July 29.—Mrs. Charlotte M. Poole broke all rules and disciplines aboard the steamship Oceana during the trip that ended yesterday. For the first time in the history of stokeholds a woman shoveled coal into the furnaces.

Mrs. Poole is an ardent suffragette, and when a discussion was started about the things that a woman should do, Mrs. Poole declared that she could do anything.

"Probably take a turn in the fire-room?" suggested one passenger, sarcastically.

"Certainly," replied Mrs. Poole. "I'll show you I can do it as well as any man."

Mrs. Poole climbed down three tiers of iron ladders into the fireroom. She dug into the coal as though she was digging sand on the beach.

GRASS HOPPERS DEVASTATED CROPS

Mt. Vernon, O., July 29.—Farmers in the vicinity of Monroe Mills are suffering considerable loss to crops through the workings of grasshoppers. Members of an automobile party that passed through the section being devastated by the hoppers, upon their arrival here Thursday evening, were compelled to divest themselves of their clothing to get rid of the little pests that alighted on them and crawled in the folds of their clothes. Farmers in that vicinity say that the hoppers alight on the fields of oats in clouds and almost strip the field before they have done with it.
